INTRODUCTORY.

IN compiling this edition of the PROVIDENCE DIRECTORY it has been found necessary to make more alterations than in any previous book, on account of the action of the City Government in changing the names of nearly two hundred streets. This has been an excellent thing for the convenience of the public, removing many duplicate names, and the new names have been chosen with good judgment, so the temporary annoyance will be lost sight of in the ultimate benefit received. In the Street Department of the book the old names have been retained and the new names given, showing the changes made.

The Map has been thoroughly revised and made up-to-date; if extra copies are desired they may be had in pocket form, colored by wards, at the Directory Office, at twenty-five cents. It is hardly necessary to state that the numerous changes render all former issues of Directory and Map quite worthless, and the same statement also applies to the PROVIDENCE HOUSE DIRECTORY or BLUE BOOK, just issued, containing a full list of names by streets, also the Club members, and much valuable information often required in business places and residences.

The completion of the new State House and other public improvements show the advance of the city in prosperity, and the coming United States Census will surely show a substantial gain in population.

Attention is called to the Table of Contents, for a comprehensive list of the different departments represented throughout the City and State.

We repeat our warning against fraudulent directory canvassers who collect in advance of publication for worthless advertising schemes, or make use of forged and raised orders. Give your orders only to well-known publishers, and scrutinize all orders carefully before signing.
