City Solicitor, and this motion is also ruled out of order.

Mr. Barney then moves that the Common Council proceed to the election of a City Solicitor, but the President rules that the motion is not in order whereupon Mr. Barney appeals from the decision of the Presiding Officer.

Mr. McCarthy suggests that the proper motion under Rule Eight would be to move a re-consideration of the vote whereby the Common Council at the preceding session this day elected on its part a City Solicitor.

The question then came upon the appeal of Mr. Barney to the house from the ruling of the Presiding Officer, that the motion to proceed to the election of a City Solicitor is not in order, and the Common Council sustains the ruling of the President seventeen members voting in the affirmative and ten in the negative.

Mr. Barney then moves that the Common Council proceed to the election of a City Solicitor to fill the vacancy caused by the death of Nicholas Van Slyck which motion being seconded is entertained by the President and the Common Council proceed to the election of a City Solicitor.

Messrs Edward J. Bassett
Rathbone Gardner and Francis Colwell are nominated for City Solicitor.

A ballot is then taken for City Solicitor, Messrs. Tellen and John E. Kendrick, acting as Tellers, with the following result, viz:

Ord. authorizing
Prov. Telephone Co.
to build conduits

The special order for this meeting, namely the consideration of the Report of the Committee on Ordinances, recommending a bill for "an ordinance authorizing the Providence Telephone Company, to construct and maintain underground conduits for telephone wires" is taken up and a recess is taken to examine the plans. Upon re-assembling it is voted to amend Section 3 of the bill by adding a provision reserving the right to the City in all cases, to make the repairs required of said Company of any streets or side walks and requiring said Company to pay the expense thereof, Section 5 is also amended by striking out the word "reasonable" in line 5.

Mr McCarthy introduced
