PERSONAL EXPRESSION

COUNCILWOMAN DiRUZZO requests the privilege of the floor to speak on a point of personal expression and states:

It has just come to mind now that tonight is Councilwoman Nolan's last City Council Meeting and suddenly I felt like I was in shock because I realize now that Patty to me is not going to be here on the City Council anymore and I can tell you that it really touches me because in the years that she served on this council she has been an exemplary servant of the people and I think she knows that. She has served her people well, she has served the City of Providence well and I am proud to have served with her. Her presence on this council will be missed, her presence representing the people although we have a new council person that will be representing them now who I am sure will do a good job. Her presence will be missed by myself and I am sure all the rest of you as well. She has done an outstanding job in the years that she has been on the council. She has never missed I don't think any meetings unless she was very sick. She has gone above and beyond her call of duty attending numerous meetings, never taking a rest from her job and obligation to the people she represented. Sometimes I wonder though how many people appreciate the hours of labor that we put into the job representing them. I'm sure that her constituents will miss her and I'm sure that we will miss her hard work for the people in the city. Patty, I want to wish you the very best of luck in whatever comes next for you. I hope that you will continue to remain friends with all of us because I consider you to be my friend. I'm proud to have served with you and I will truly miss you working with me on many of the projects that we worked on. I certainly miss working with you on the Urban Redevelopment Committee and when you were

Chairman of the Finance Committee you did an outstanding job for the people in this city as the present Chairman has done. So good luck to you, I don't want to let you cry and I don't want to cry either. I will miss you and I will miss working with you. God Bless you.

ACTING COUNCIL PRESIDENT YOUNG
relinquishes the Chair.

ACTING COUNCIL PRESIDENT Di-RUZZO in the Chair.

ACTING COUNCIL PRESIDENT YOUNG
requests the privilege of the floor to speak on a point of personal expression and states:

I too want to echo your sentiments about our colleague Pat Nolan. Years ago we used to refer to ourselves as salt and pepper. I was salt, she was pepper. She is a lot tougher than me that is why she was the pepper but I just want to let her know how much I respect and admire her courage, her tenacity, her commitment and her love for her community. When I look around the fourteen years I have been on the council there is not a single person on the council in the fourteen years that has worked harder than Pat Nolan and I am telling you she is going to leave some big footprints for her predecessor to follow. She has made her mark in the city government and in this entire state and I just want you to know how much I respect and admire and love you too. You have been a great champion of good causes and you have always stood for what you believed in and whether you stood there alone it didn't matter but when you believed in something you just stood there and you fought for it and we are going to really miss you and miss your dedication but I think most of all we are going to miss your determination and your tenacity. If you were on her team and you were fighting to get something done, you knew if Pat was working with you it was going to happen. It might take a little while but eventually you will be successful and you leave a wonderful legacy that you should be proud of. Under your leadership we were able to get the Civilian Review. You were the first to do speed humps and now I have those crazy things all through my neighborhood now and the constituents love them so again I just want to thank you for all the wonderful things that you have done for the city and the wonderful memories I have had with you and as you go through life I'm sure you are going to be doing bigger and better things and we are going to be watching your career as you move forward. Thank you so much and God Bless.

returns to the Chair.

Whereas, The Authority's creation was approved by the Public Finance Management Board on February 12, 1988; and

Whereas, The Authority may now duly transact its business of acquiring and constructing public facilities, acquiring public equipment; maintaining, renovating, repairing and operating the same; and issuing its revenue bonds and/or notes to finance the public facilities and public equipment; and

Notwithstanding any other provision of this Resolution or the QZABs, failure of the City to comply with the continuing disclosure certificate shall not be considered an event of default; however, any bondholder may take such actions as may be necessary and appropriate, including seeking mandate or specific performance by court order, to cause the City to comply with its obligations under this
