

RESOLUTION OF THE CITY COUNCIL

No. 702

Approved December 22, 1982

WHEREAS, With the coming of Inauguration Day, January 3, 1983, the term of office of the final City Council under the Charter Act of 1940 comes to a close, and

WHEREAS, This indeed is a somber moment, for never more will this honored Chamber be the forum for Eddy Xavier to gently and patiently admonish the Providence Journal or the Biltmore Hotel to pay their proper tax bill; or for Bill Moise to inform the citizenry of the many fine swimming holes available in our fair City, and

WHEREAS, Never more will these hallowed walls echo such profound statements as "Bravo, Signor Giovanni da Verrazzano" or "Stand Up, Vinnie Cirelli", and

WHEREAS, It is fitting at this time to reflect on the public contributions of the following members of the City Council whose terms will expire:

Council President Robert F. Lynch
Councilman Philip A. Almagno
Councilman Thomas C. Boyle
Councilman John P. Brennan
Councilman Vincent J. Cirelli
Councilman Laurence K. Flynn
Councilman Harry A. Johnson
Councilman Charles R. Mansolillo
Councilman William J. Moise
Councilman Thomas W. Pearlman
Councilman Anthony P. Pennine
Councilman Robert V. Salvatore
Councilman Kenneth E. Snowden
Councilman Edward W. Xavier, and

WHEREAS, To record the trials, tribulations and experiences of these honorable members of this City Council would require volumes, since in certain instances, their service spans more than one-quarter of a Century, and

WHEREAS, The impact of their civic programs, their interest in their respective jurisdictions, will long be evident as will the respect afforded them by the people of whom they gave abundantly in the social life of the Community and in the political forums,

NOW, THEREFORE, BE IT RESOLVED, That for the cooperation and assistance afforded the new members throughout the tenure of the outgoing Council Members during their years in office, the members of the City Council do hereby express their profound gratitude, and

BE IT FURTHER RESOLVED, That the Members of the City Council, who by the gift of the electorate will once again represent their respective constituents, express their appreciation for the pleasant association afforded them by the departing members of this City Council and in demonstrating this feeling, extend to the members, an invitation to visit the City Council Chamber often in the future when the succeeding Council will be in session and are granted permission to enter within the rail of the Chamber at all City Council Meetings.
