Mr. Wexler informs the City Council that the City Solicitor has advised him that the law is not too clear as to whether the members of the Board of Canvassers and Registration should be appointed by the Mayor and approved by this Council or elected by the Council and in order to eliminate any confusion as to the validity of this appointment, he places in nomination for the office of Member of the Board of Canvassers and Registration for the term expiring March, 1965, the name of JOSEPH P.
