MAY 8 1975
APPROVED
MAYOR

P E T I T I O N

WHEREAS, Councilman Anthony C. Merola, and Councilman Mario Turchetta did co-sponsor Resolutions of the City Council, 0366, Approved May 8, 1975 and 0821, Approved November 13, 1975, duly certified copies of which are hereto attached, and

WHEREAS, the Provisions of the several Resolutions requested the Traffic Engineer to cause the installation of Pedestrian Controlled Motor Vehicle Signal Lights along Broadway, at its intersection with Toboy Street; and for the installation of Pedestrian Controlled Crossing Signal Lights at Westminster Street and at Broadway, in the immediate vicinity of the junction of said Streets with Olneyville Square, and

WHEREAS, the several Resolutions were directly concerned with the safety of residents of the Parenti Villa and of the Olney Towers, and

WHEREAS, as of this date, February 18, 1976, the Traffic Engineer of the City of Providence has not reported on the Provisions of the said Resolutions,

NOW, THEREFORE, WE, THE UNDERSIGNED, being residents of the Parenti Villa and Olney Towers and concerned for the safety of ourselves and of the citizens of the immediate vicinity, thereof, do hereby have reason to cross and re-cross the above noted thoroughfares do hereby respectfully appeal to Traffic Engineer, Frank A. Tibaldi, to effect the installation of such Pedestrian Controlled Lights as incorporated in the above noted Resolutions.
