PERSONAL PRIVILEGE

COUNCILMAN DeLUCA Requests the Floor to Speak on a Point of Personal Privilege.

"There is no guarantee that times are going to get any better. We should prepare ourselves for perhaps worse economic times by the next fiscal year.

In the spirit of cooperation and not one of confrontation, I ask that the Administration and the Unions work with the City Council and develop a second economic plan for the next fiscal year.

Mayor Cianci should acknowledge that we are not stupid and not misinformed as he has previously stated, but an equal arm in this Body of Government.

I have a plan that can reduce City spending by 15.7 Million Dollars with no layoffs, no reduction in City services, no reduction in pay.

I hope that a cooperative effort can be made to work together on this financial crisis."
