Julian Drix, Chair
City of Providence Sustainability Commission

Dear Julian,

I hope this finds you, and all Commission members, well. I am writing to inform you about my decision to leave my position at the City of Providence Sustainability Commission. This decision is effective immediately, so that the commission can have a quorum without counting me and so that new members can be elected in my place.

I am only resigning due to scheduling conflicts that have made it impossible for me to attend the Commission's meetings. It has been a pleasure and an honor to serve on the Commission for the last four years. I am very proud to have been part of the Commission's achievements in advancing sustainability together with social justice in our city. I wish you and the other members the very best going forward.

Sincerely,

Carlos G. García-Quijano
