David N. Cicilline

EXECUTIVE ORDER NUMBER 2009-10
September 22, 2009

ESTABLISHING A WORKING GROUP TO DEVELOP
POLICIES AND CONTINGENCY PLANS FOR SIGNIFICANT OUTBREAKS
OF INFLUENZA IN THE CITY OF PROVIDENCE

WHEREAS, both governmental units and businesses are expected to be affected by the upcoming flu season, where H1N1 (so-called "swine flu") and other circulating influenza viruses may cause widespread illness, impacting the continuity of operations; and

WHEREAS, steps can be taken to slow the spread of flu in the workplace, to protect employees' health and safety, and to limit the negative impact to the community, economy, and society; and

WHEREAS, in order to prepare for potentially serious conditions, it is imperative that a set of policies and contingency plans be developed; and

WHEREAS, in order to assure that Providence has fully explored the options available, a special group should be established to consider strategies and articulate policies for managing significant outbreaks of influenza;
