

RESOLUTION OF THE CITY COUNCIL

No. 428

Approved May 21, 1975

WHEREAS, our distinguished colleague, Councilman Sanford H. Gorodetsky, while returning to his home following the last meeting of the City Council on May 1, 1975, came upon a burning building located at 721 Hope Street, in which there were people frantically trying to escape, and

WHEREAS, without fear of his own safety, Councilman Gorodetsky broke into the building via its' back entrance and rescued Miss Elaine Bonnell.

NOW THEREFORE, BE IT RESOLVED, that in noting that heroic act of Councilman Sanford H. Gorodetsky, His Honor the Mayor and the Members of the City Council applaud him and are gratified that no harm came to Miss Elaine Bonnell and himself.
