PREFACE.

The Annexation Directory, presented herewith, gives information of great value to all citizens of Providence and vicinity. We have made a thorough canvass of the homes and business places located in the territory annexed from the Town of Johnston, which is now a part of Ward 8, Providence. The result, we believe, will be gratifying to all who use the book.

We have also published a Map of the Annexed District, giving the new streets and all changes obtainable, and we are indebted to the City Engineer's Department for valuable services in this connection. Had the naming of the streets been done earlier this Directory would have been issued sooner. There is still great need of renumbering the streets of this locality and it is hoped that before the canvass of our Providence Directory this will have been faithfully attended to. We believe this Annexation Directory will be thoroughly appreciated by our patrons. Another year our City Directory will include the names of all citizens of Greater Providence.

OUR 1893 ROTARY STEAM CLOTH PRESS Is made of New Designs and Patterns throughout, and is Fully Guaranteed.

The Patent Bed gives four points of contact, and also allows the goods to press entirely up to the seams. The goods are pressed uniformly throughout their entire length and breadth, and any extra thickness of the cloth does not strain the machine in any way, as is the case where screws are used to give pressure.

We also manufacture Patent Friction Couplings, Shaftings, Hangers and Pulleys, for all classes of work.

PREFACE.

This volume is the 58th number in the series of the PROVIDENCE DIRECT and RHODE ISLAND BUSINESS DIRECTORY.

Seventy-four years have elapsed since the publication of the first Direc of Providence, in 1824, and on the issuance of this book we enter the seventy- year of its existence, and in 1899 we hope to fittingly observe its three-qua century anniversary.

On the first day of June, 1898, a portion of Johnston (for its boundaries page 995), became a part of Providence. We were unable to incorporate names of citizens of this annexed territory, as many of its streets are to re-named and re-numbered; hence information given at this time would h been incorrect and unsatisfactory.

As soon, however, as we can practically do so, we shall issue an ANNEXA DIRECTORY which will, in fact, be a supplement to this volume, and will comp a General and Business Directory and a Map of the annexed territory.

Our Providence Directory patrons will be furnished to their order, sent mail or otherwise, with this book at 50 cents per copy, which will be one-hal the regular selling price.

The requirements made by the National Government upon Rhode Isl for support in the war which is upon us, have been promptly met, and a regim has already left the State, and is now awaiting orders to move on to the fr In honor of the "boys in blue," we have published a roster of the First Rh Island U. S. Vol. Infantry, which will be found on pages 9–15. As long as edition of the Directory shall last, this record will stand in honor of the F Volunteers from our State to answer the call to do service in the support a for the glory of this country.

Of those whose names appeared in the Providence Directory of 18 12,558 have changed the location of their residences, 5,326 their business lo tion, and 3,690, the nature of their business or avocation.

The House Directory and Family Address Book is published simu neously with this book, and a Home Edition, elegantly bound, is again issu this year.

The name of Mr. Thomas R. Briggs, residing at 118 Cranston street, s remains in our Directory and has been recorded in every edition of this wo

We respectfully call attention to the changes in the Directory, given bel and to the table of contents on page 3.
