read, and amended by striking out in Line 12 the word: "now"
; and also by adding after the word "City" in Line 18 the words:
"and provided also that said
Nauvausett Electric Lighting Company shall commence work upon the construction of said conduits within six months from the date of the approval of this Resolution."

Committee appointed.

The resolution as amended is then read and passed, and Messrs. Lansing, Taughan and

May 26th 1898

Dorchester are appointed members of said Committee on the part of the Common Council.

Notice of re-consideration

Mr. Mc Carthy gives notice in writing of his intention to move a reconsideration at the next meeting of the vote whereby the Council passed the foregoing resolution.

The President rules this motion out of order, the rules of the Council having been sus-pended.

Do.

Mr. Mc Carthy appeals from the decision of the Chair;
And the ruling of the Presi-dent is sustained by two -thirds of the members of the Council.

The resolution is then communicated to the Board of Aldermen.

In Common Council
June 9, 1890.

The Common Council meet pursuant to adjournment, the President in the Chair and a quorum present.

The record of May 19th is read and approved.

Ruling of the President upon Mr. McCarthy's point of construction of the Rules of Order.

The record of the meeting of May 26th is read, whereupon Mr. McCarthy rises to a point of order and asks the ruling of the President upon the construction of Rule Eight viz: The Chair having ruled at a preceding meeting that a notice of intention to move a reconsideration at the next adjourned meeting was out of order by reason of the suspension of the rules for the session, was not the motion to reconsider also out of order?

The President decides

June 9th 1890.

Do.

that Rule Eight of the Common Council provides that any member may at the same meeting move to reconsider a motion, or give notice ^{in writing} of his intention to move a reconsideration at the next adjourned meeting; but the suspension of the rules of order debarred members from this privilege.

The rules being suspended the Council was governed by general Parliamentary usage, which allows any member (voting in the majority) to move a reconsideration. The gentleman from the Fourth Ward, Mr. Jos. H. Kendrick, who moved the reconsideration at the preceding meeting, having voted in the affirmative, the Chair would rule that the point of order is not well taken.

Appeal from the President's decision.

Mr. McCarthy thereupon appeals from the decision of the Chair, and the
