Dear Councilwoman Brassil:

The Finance Department is requesting a $10,000 transfer of funds within the 1983-84 General Fund Appropriation per the attached request. This transfer is simply an adjustment to the appropriation therefore no fiscal note is required.

Sincerely,

Jerome Baron, Finance Director,
City Hall,
Providence, R.I. 02903.

Dear Mr. Baron:

RE: CLAIM OF RICHARD A. CAMPAGNONE

I spoke to you about this claim a couple of weeks ago. Since this accident and injury occurred while Mr. Campagnone was working in the Sewage Treatment Plant on 4/23/82, Attorney Jerry Norigian, who handles Workers' Compensation claims for the City, felt that in terms of a finality to the claim, it would be better if it were settled as a straight claim by the Claims Committee.

I went along with this, upon condition that the claims' account of this department be reimbursed from the Workers' Compensation Account.

This was agreed to by Mr. Norigian and John Mancone, who was the Acting Personnel Director, and who is now Deputy Personnel Director.

Accordingly, I enclose herewith a copy of a letter from Mr. Mancone, authorizing the transfer and charge off of the said TEN THOUSAND ($10,000) DOLLARS, from the Workers' Compensation Budget to the Law Department Claims' Budget.

Would you kindly take whatever steps are necessary to effect this transfer, and notify me when it is effectuated?

Thank you for your cooperation in this matter.

Very truly yours
