

Dear Human Relations Commission,

I am writing to notify you of my resignation from the position of commissioner of the Human Relations Commission, effective immediately.

As a commission member, I've always valued being a part of this group of passionate and impact-driven leaders. I've recently accepted an opportunity to work for the Commonwealth of Massachusetts, and although I will continue to live in Providence, this role will require more of my time, attention, and hands-on involvement. Given these current circumstances, I cannot maintain my commissioner's responsibilities with the PHRC.

I hope the commission can understand my position, and I am sad to leave this cherished role.

I wish the commission all the best going forward, and I will happily track the ongoing work planned for the future.

Yours sincerely,
Elder Gonzalez Trejo
