

RESOLUTION OF THE CITY COUNCIL

No. 410

Approved June 23, 2000

RESOLVED, That Sincere Congratulations are hereby extended to Detective William M. Dwyer, Jr., upon receiving the Chief's Award, who on March 1, 1999, developed information from a confidential informant that led to the arrest of three subjects who were responsible for five armed robberies and one homicide. Detective Dwyers information was critical in identifying the perpetrators in the January 15, 1999 murder.

No. 411

Approved June 23, 2000

RESOLVED, That Sincere Congratulations are hereby extended to Detective Patrick J. McNulty, upon receiving the Chief's Award, who during the month of June 1998, conducted an extensive investigation into cocaine sales within the city. The intense investigation required long hours of surveillance as Detective McNulty strove to pinpoint the main distributor. When the supplier was identified a search warrant for two locations was obtained. Detective McNulty arrested the suspect which resulted in the seizure of over 14 Kilograms of cocaine (one of the largest seizures in Rhode Island history).

Approved June 23, 2000

RESOLVED, That Sincere Congratulations are hereby extended to Officer Shawn M. Moffett, upon receiving the Chief's Award, who on February 8, 1998, while on patrol and without the benefit of a radio call observed the clerk of the Oakland Avenue Pizzeria chasing two subjects on Eaton Street. Officer Moffett surprised the two suspects at which time they threw money and firearms to the ground. These subjects were arrested and identified as having robbed the pizzeria moments earlier.

No. 413

Approved June 23, 2000

RESOLVED, That Sincere Congratulations are hereby extended to Detective Michael G. Panzarella, upon receiving the Chief's Award, who began an intense investigation into organized crime in November of 1996 culminating with the arrest and conviction of sixteen members of the Patriarca Crime Family and Associates in 1999. Detective Panzarella, working with a confidential witness developed evidence which led to arrests for gambling, drug dealing, extortion and attempted murder. This was Rhode Island's largest organized crime arrest in over twenty five years.
