Re: 23 Chapin Avenue

Dear John:

In October 1984 the Revolving Fund purchased the badly deteriorated property at 23 Chapin Avenue for $2,700, subject to $6,610.98 in unpaid back taxes and board-up liens. To make the renovation of this property economically feasible, we request that the back taxes and other fees be waived. This waiver is essential.

We are currently negotiating with an individual who is planning to invest approximately $110,000 to rehabilitate the house. In its present condition (photo enclosed) we are having difficulty selling the property with various liens attached. If these liens were waived, we believe this house will be conveyed and construction will begin before this summer.

Once renovated, this property will again contribute to the neighborhood and the city tax base. To provide the incentive for this to happen we need your help.

Sincerely,

B. Clarkson Schoettle
Executive Director
