Gentlemen:

I cannot let another day go by without letting you know how pleasant it was working with you during the Holiday Festival. Your immediate and generous support made the festival an exciting and rewarding experience for everyone. I hope that, together, we have made new audiences and new supporters for the performing arts in our southern New England area.

Please accept my warmest thanks and appreciation.

Dear Russell:

I have been telephoning you several times recently, in your capacity as President of the City Council, to tell you that the local Legislative Committee of the Chamber of Commerce has firmed the proposed dinner date for March 24th at about 6:15 P. M. at the Johnson's Hummocks. Of course, a formal invitation will be sent to you later on towards the end of February.

The reason I am writing to you now is to ask you to please informally tell all the other members of the City Council and ask them to hold this date. Naturally, we would like to have a 100% turn out but I suppose a few will be away at that time.

Best regards,

T. L. Johnson, Jr.
