Dear Mayor Cicilline:

It is with deep regret that I inform you that I must resign my position as a member of the City's Board of Investment Commissioners. Unfortunately, board meetings for Domestic Bank take place at the same time as the meetings for the Board of Investment Commissioners. If another vacancy occurs on a Board that meets in the evenings or early mornings, I will be glad to lend my services to the City.

Thank you for the opportunity for serving on the Board and please pass along my regrets to my colleagues on the Board.

Sincerely,
