CITY OF PROVIDENCE, RHODE ISLAND Robert M. Mendenhall CLERK

FORM FOR DISCLOSURE OF CONFLICTS OF INTEREST
OF CITY EMPLOYEES OR OFFICIALS

Section 1206(d) of the Providence Home Rule Charter provides:

Any elected or appointed officer or employee of the city who possessed or who acquires such interests as might tend to create a conflict with the public interest shall make full disclosure in writing to his appointing officer or in the case of a member of the city council, to the city council at any time such conflict occurs. Such disclosure statements shall be made a matter of public record and be filed with the city clerk for submission to the city council. The disclosure obligation created by this subsection shall be in addition to, and not in substitution for, obligations incurred pursuant to state law.

Section 36-14-6 of the Rhode Island General Laws defines conflict of interest as follows:

Interest in conflict with discharge of duties. - A person subject to this chapter has an interest which is in substantial conflict with the proper discharge of his duties or employment in the public interest and of his responsibilities as prescribed in the laws of this state, if he has reason to believe or expect that he or his spouse (if not estranged) or any dependent child, business associate or any business by which said person is employed or which said person represents will derive a direct monetary gain or suffer a direct monetary loss, as the case may be, by reason of his official activity. He does not have an interest which is in substantial conflict with the proper discharge of his duties in the public interest and of his responsibilities as prescribed by the laws of this state, if any benefit or detriment accrues to him or his spouse (if not estranged) or any dependent child, business associate, or any business by which said person is employed or which said person represents as a member of a business, profession, occupation or group to no greater extent than any other member of such business, profession, occupation or group.

DEPT. OF CITY CLERK
PROVIDENCE, R. I.

September 2, 1983

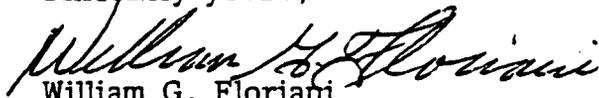

The Honorable City Council
City Hall
Providence, Rhode Island 02903

Honorable Ladies and Gentlemen:

In accordance with Title 45, Section 31, Paragraph 19, of the General Laws of Rhode Island, I or Elmgrove Associates, which I am a partner hereby notify you that I own a parcel of land located at 539 Hartford Avenue, Providence, Rhode Island which is within the Hartford Avenue Renewal Project.

Also be advised that I am currently proposing to buy a parcel of land within this project which was advertised in the Providence Journal for sale by the Providence Redevelopment Agency. This parcel abuts my property at 539 Hartford Avenue.

Sincerely yours,

William G. Floriani
Supervisor of Real Estate
Department of Planning & Urban Development

45-31-19. INTEREST OF OFFICERS AND EMPLOYEES IN PROJECT AREA PROPERTIES.--No officer or employee of the community or of the agency who in the course of his duties is required to participate in the formulation of plans or policies for the re-development of a project area, or to approve such plans or policies, shall acquire any interest in any property included within a project area within the community. If any such officer or employee owns or has any financial interest direct or indirect, in any property included within such a project area he shall immediately disclose, in writing, such interest to the legislative body of the community and such disclosure shall be entered in the minutes of the agency and of the legislative body. Failure to so disclose such interest shall constitute misconduct in office. No payment shall be made to any member or officer of an agency for any property or interest therein acquired by the agency from such member or officer, unless the amount of such payment is fixed by court order in eminent domain proceedings, or unless such payment is unanimously approved by the legislative body.

45-31-20. ADMINISTRATIVE APPROPRIATIONS.--When the agency created for any community becomes authorized to transact business and exercise its powers, the legislative body of the community may at that time, and from time to time thereafter, make an estimate of the amount of money required for the administrative
