

RESOLUTION OF THE CITY COUNCIL

No. 15

Approved January 13, 1978

WHEREAS, tragedy has befallen our Community by the recent fire at Aquinas Hall at Providence College on December 13, 1977, and

WHEREAS, this normally most joyous of seasons was abruptly changed to one of extreme sorrow because of the deaths and injuries to several young ladies who were residents of the fire-ravaged Aquinas Hall,

NOW, THEREFORE, BE IT RESOLVED, that the City Council of the City of Providence pauses in a moment of silence in respect to the memory of the young ladies who lost their lives, while also offering a prayer for the speedy recovery of the several injured students, and

BE IT FURTHER RESOLVED, that an expression of deep gratitude is extended by the Members of the City Council to the Providence Firefighters who performed so fearlessly in their life-saving efforts.
