PERSONAL EXPRESSION

COUNCILMAN NARDUCCI Requests the privilege of the floor to speak on a Point of Personal Expression and states:

“I would just like to mention and I’m sure most of you know not that Bill Packard passed away. He was a very devoted worker to the City of Providence for many years. He spent most of his career with the Inspection and Standards Division. One thing with Bill is you always knew where he was coming from. He didn’t pull any strings. He did the right things for the City of Providence and not for any personal use or any private use. So, I would just like to have us keep his family in our prayers for the next couple of days. Again, I just wanted to mention what a great man he was and what a great asset he was to the City of Providence. Thank you, Mr. President.”
