RESOLUTION OF THE CITY COUNCIL

No. 287

Approved May 3, 1962

Whereas, Chester R. Martin has served the Providence Redevelopment Agency since its inception in 1947 as Chairman and

Whereas, Mr. Martin has manifested throughout his distinguished service and association with the Providence Redevelopment Agency the highest grade of civic responsibility and distinguished leadership together with a strong and admirable sense of loyalty, determination and dedication of purpose; and

Whereas, he has made such significant and effective contributions by the judicious and intelligent use of urban renewal measures in the fight against urban blight and decay, that our great city of Providence is now held in high esteem and regard and is a leading example of high accomplishment in the realm of urban renewal; and

Whereas, as Chairman, possessing an unwavering dedication to the common good and actuated by a profound sense of public service and interest, was responsible in great measure by his efforts for the excellent program of urban renewal now being undertaken by the City of Providence; and

Whereas, Chester R. Martin has submitted his resignation as a member of the Agency, effective May 2, 1962.

Now, Therefore, Be It Resolved that the City Council hereby expresses its appreciation and gratitude for the services rendered to the Providence Redevelopment Agency in such a dedicated and conscientious manner as to reflect credit upon himself and honor upon the City and the Agency, and that a copy of this Resolution be presented by His Honor Walter H. Reynolds to Chester R. Martin.
