Dear Council Pres Lombardi,
(And Council Members)

On Behalf of the Fiestas Patronales of Rhode Island Desfile 2001. I would like to extend an invitation to you and the entire City Council to march in the Puerto Rican Parade which is in its 18th year. This year is especially special because our route will have us march past our 10th ward councilman Luis Apontes home. Councilman Aponte is a fine example of the best of the Puerto Rican Community. It is also with pride that we honor a woman who is an unselfish, hardworking, tough, yet caring "sweet" representative of the 9th ward. Representing the best that Providence has to offer. Councilwoman Pat Nolan who we have unanimously named "Madrina God Mather" of our parade. We know that you will want to march alongside your fellow Council members. The parade will take place as follows:

Aug 19, 2001

Noon

Beginning at:

Thurbers and Broad

Ending at:

J&W Harborside Park

On behalf of the entire Board Thank you in advance.

Warmly,

Lydia M. Rivera
