Gentlemen:

Due to illness I am no longer able to perform my duties as Public Administrator of the City of Providence. I am therefore resigning from said office to become effective upon your acceptance.

At this time I also wish to extend to you my appreciation and thanks for having elected me to said office. I also wish to extend to all of you my best wishes for good health and success in your work for the good and welfare of the City of Providence.

Sincerely,

Edmund Wexler
