COMMUNICATION FROM HIS HONOR THE MAYOR

Communication dated August 3, 1989, Requesting a Limited Exemption from the City Charter's Residency Requirements for Joseph Agostinelli to serve in the Position of Special Assistant to Expire on December 31, 1990.

August 3, 1989

The Honorable Nicholas W. Easton
President of the City Council
The Honorable Members of the City Council
City Hall
Providence, Rhode Island 02903

Dear Mr. President and Council Members:

I am requesting a limited exemption from the City Charter's residency requirement for Joseph Agostinelli. I have appointed Mr. Agostinelli to serve in the position of Special Assistant. The position of Special Assistant is responsible for a wide variety of duties and requires the type of management background and knowledge that only Mr. Agostinelli possesses.

Prior to his appointment, the position was held by Mr. Henry Fazzano, who during his tenure as Special Assistant served as the interim Director of three City Departments. As interim Tax Collector, Mr. Agostinelli has displayed the management qualities necessary to meet the requirements of this very demanding position.

This appointment also lacks any type of tenured status and thus the appointee serves at the pleasure of the Mayor.

Mr. Agostinelli has also indicated he shall terminate his employment with the City on December 31, 1990.

After having conducted a diligent search, I have been unable to find anyone currently residing in the City who possesses the background, knowledge or ability to serve in the position of Special Assistant.

Accordingly, due to the finite nature of his employment, the untenured status of the position, and Mr. Agostinelli's unique abilities, I am respectfully requesting a limited exemption for Mr. Joseph Agostinelli from the City Charter's residency requirement, to expire on December 31, 1990.

Sincerely,

JOSEPH R. PAOLINO, JR.
Mayor of Providence

Received.

Resolution Calling for a Primary and Special Election to be Held in Wards One and Seven.

Whereas, Two vacancies exist in the Office of the City Council, one from the First Ward in the City of Providence, Rhode Island, caused by the resignation on August 10, 1989 of Carolyn F. Brassil, one from the Seventh Ward in the City of Providence, Rhode Island caused by the resignation on August 10, 1989 of Louis R. Stravato and,

Whereas, in accordance with the provisions of Section 206(b) of the City of Providence, Rhode Island Home Rule Charter of 1980, it is mandatory that a Special Election for the purpose of filling said vacancies be held within ninety (90) days of the occurrence of such vacancies; and

Whereas, Section 17-15-4 of the General Laws of the State of Rhode Island provides a primary election for the nomination of such city or town officials shall be held and the local board shall fix the date thereof; provided, however, that said primary election shall have been held by the thirtieth (30th) day preceeding the date fixed for said election.

Resolution Authorizing His Honor the Mayor to Apply for a Housing Development Grant on behalf of the City of Providence from the United States Government for the Purpose of Providing low-moderate income rental housing.

Whereas, the need for ample, adequate, and affordable housing for the urban population of Providence and for the area designated for residential rental development by the Department of Planning and Development is reflected in statistics supplied by 1980 Census Data. The data relating to downtown Providence does not reflect the decline in population because of destruction of living units through arson and abandonment, and

Whereas, of a total population of 2045, approximately 38% of downtown Providence residents live below the poverty threshold, and

Whereas, in 1980, 1215 out of 1223 occupied housing units in downtown Providence were renter occupied, with 972 units renting for less than $197/month. The rental amounts have increased significantly since 1980 because of real estate speculations, the expansion of Rhode Island Hospital into the neighborhood and the decline in housing status, and

Whereas, the severe cutbacks in federal housing subsidies have exacerbated the problems in downtown Providence as it has in inner cities throughout the country. With the extinction of new construction and substantial rehabilitation Section 8 subsidies for multi-family housing, the only available subsidy is through section 8 certificates. Providence has approximately 700 certificates with a turn-over of about 70 a year. The waiting list for these certificates is approximately 3,000 at this time, and

Whereas, the need for adequate and affordable housing is obvious both in the downtown Providence neighborhood and in the City of Providence. With the development of the proposed project, it could become a vibrant key to neighborhood revitalization.

Whereas, Providence is one of 54 communities nationwide eligible for Federal Assistance under a Housing Development Grant.

Now, therefore, be it Resolved, by the City of Providence that the City Council of the City of Providence, State of Rhode Island hereby authorizes the Honorable Joseph R. Paolino, Jr., Mayor of the City of Providence to apply for a Housing Development Grant on behalf of the City of Providence from the United States Government for the purpose of providing low-moderate income rental housing. The proposed low-moderate income rental housing shall be known as Shepard's Place Apartments, consisting of 100 units of which 40% (40 units) shall be targeted for low income residents.

On the evening of July 9, 1989, a Mr. Alfred Vickers was visiting friends of Hart Street when he decided to go home. Leaving the residence of one of my constituents and had a serious heart attack outside on the sidewalk with several onlookers standing by.

All of a sudden, our own First Deputy City Clerk,

Michael R. Clement appeared and administered CPR to Mr. Vickers who by this time had turned cold and blue.

Rescue personnel arrived and whisked Mr. Vickers off to Miriam Hospital where physicians stated that if it were not for "Mike" the man would not be alive today.

There is a Block Party scheduled in honor of Michael, having been "Hero for a Day" but the man is back in the Hospital awaiting Bypass Surgery and will wait until he is better."
