PERSONAL EXPRESSION

COUNCILMAN IGLIOZZI requests the privilege of the floor to speak on a point of personal expression and states:

I would like to congratulate my fellow colleague here for being appointed to the Providence Neighborhood Housing Corporation, Patricia Nolan, and I want to congratulate her openly. I would also like to take the time to congratulate my other colleague, Carol Romano, from the North End on her recent victory of getting the adult entertainment license issue remanded back to the Board of Licenses. I don't know what is going to happen at that level, but I think it was a great victory that DBI remanded the issue back. I want to congratulate her. I think that she deserves a lot of credit. She is fighting for her neighborhood, and I believe she is fighting for all our neighborhoods. It ends up being all of our problem, because she is really fighting for all of our neighborhoods because we are all afraid of the fact that they may leave downtown, but we don't want them to come to our neighborhoods. I just want to give you a resounding congratulations. I had the unique opportunity to meet the Prime Minister of Italy today. It was an interesting time because just as he was about to speak the decision came down from the United States Service Court of Justice that the officer was acquitted for flying over the sky lift in Italy. Quite a few people died in that accident. He stood up and he was an unbelievable statesman and he was disappointed with the decision that the military courts came down with, but he was willing to overlook that and realize hopes to move forward and can hopefully build a better relationship with America and NATO. Why I say that is that I would hope that we could take a little bit of time tonight to say a quick prayer for the families and children who lost their loved ones in that tragic accident in Italy. God Bless and Thank you.
