

THE CITY OF PROVIDENCE
STATE OF RHODE ISLAND AND PROVIDENCE PLANTATIONS

RESOLUTION OF THE CITY COUNCIL

No. 565

Approved November 25, 1992

WHEREAS, Justice Assistance is an organization dedicated to the promotion of justice by providing assistance to the victims of crime as well as rehabilitative services to offenders, and

WHEREAS, Each year, Justice Assistance presents the Neil J. Houston, Jr., Criminal Justice Awards to selected citizens who have made outstanding contributions to the criminal justice profession and the public interest. This award is a memorial to the late Neil J. Houston, Jr., who was an outstanding athlete and scholar at Harvard University, played professional baseball with the Detroit Tigers Organization and went on to serve as the Executive Director of the Justice Resources Institute and the Crime and Justice Foundation and as Director of the Gardiner Howland Shaw Foundation, and

WHEREAS, Kenneth R. Walker, Sr., Chairman of the Rhode Island Parole Board, has been awarded the Neil J. Houston, Jr., Criminal Justice Award this year. Mr. Walker is a graduate of Providence College and received a Masters of Education from Rhode Island College and a Doctorate in Education from Boston College. He taught English and Social Studies for the East Providence School Department and served as Assistant Principal of Central Jr. High School. In 1970, he was appointed to the faculty of Rhode Island College. He is now a full Professor and Director of the Rhode Island College Early Enrollment Program.

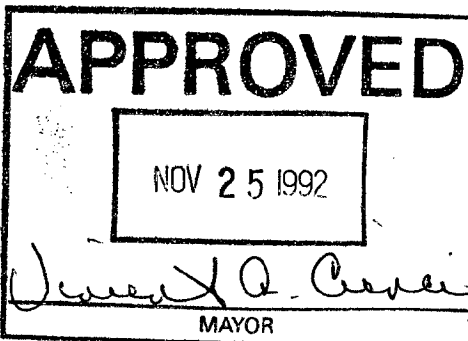

NOW, THEREFORE, BE IT RESOLVED, That on behalf of the people of Providence, the Members of the City Council join Justice Assistance in commending Kenneth R. Walker, Sr., for his outstanding contributions to the criminal justice system and extend congratulations and best wishes for continued success and good fortune.
