

RESOLUTION OF THE CITY COUNCIL

No. 510

Approved September 11, 1986

WHEREAS, Stephen Woerner was the first Internal Auditor in the history of the City of Providence, and

WHEREAS, He began his service in the city's darkest financial hour, he proved himself equal to this formidable challenge; and his relentless scrutiny of the city's purchasing, personnel and management policies and his sound advice to the Committee on Finance were invaluable in guiding the city through its financial crisis, and

WHEREAS, Upon the rise of the City Council, it has been customary for certain members of this honorable body to adjourn to certain establishments in the city, and therein to partake of good company, good conversation, and good cheer, and

WHEREAS, The Members assumed that Stephen Woerner joined in these excursions for the same reasons they did, but in fact, he was conducting an extensive research project, and

WHEREAS, His hard earned expertise in this field of knowledge led him to become a partner in the Hope Brewing Company (it has not been determined whether the company is named in honor of the motto of the State of Rhode Island the famous street in our city, or the establishment where Mr. Woerner did his most productive research),

NOW, THEREFORE, BE IT RESOLVED, That the City Council of the City of Providence does express its thanks to Stephen Woerner for his service to the city, and its hope that he will continue to serve the needs of the people of Providence in his new endeavor, and

BE IT FURTHER RESOLVED, That the public interest demands that sufficient samples of the Hope Brewing Company's product be made available to the Members of the City Council, that they may certify its suitability for distribution to the general public.
