AN ACT

JANUARY SESSION, A.D. 19

59.

AUTHORIZING THE CITY COUNCIL OF THE CITY OF PROVIDENCE TO ENACT ORDINANCES REGULATING AND LICENSING AUTOMOBILE PARKING PLACES.

It is enacted by the General Assembly as follows:

SECTION 1. The City Council of the City of Providence is hereby authorized and empowered to enact ordinances to license and regulate the conduct and operation of automobile garages and automobile parking places in said city and to establish a system of fees and charges therefor, PROVIDED HOWEVER, that one hundred ($100) dollars per annum per automobile garage or automobile parking place shall be the maximum fee or charge.

SEC. 2. The words "automobile garages", as used in this Act, shall mean any building or buildings used for the purpose of storing or parking four (4) or more motor vehicles, where the owner of or person storing or parking such vehicles is charged a fee therefor.

The words "automobile parking places" as used in this Act shall mean any plot, place or parcel of land used for the purpose of storing or parking four (4) or more motor vehicles, where the owner or person storing or parking such vehicles is charged a fee therefor, and shall include such places providing overhead shelters as are not completely enclosed.

SEC. 3. In connection with the licensing of garages and automobile parking places, the City of Providence is authorized to make such rules, regulations and requirements for the conduct of the business of parking automobiles as said City Council may deem necessary and proper.

320. 4. This Act shall take effect upon its passage and Chapter 834, Public Laws of 1940, entitled "An Act Authorizing the City Council of the City of Providence to Enact Ordinances Regulating and Licensing Automobile Parking Places", is hereby repealed.

IN AMENDMENT OF SECTIONS 21-7-1 and 2 OF THE GENERAL LAWS, 1956, IN CHAPTER 21-7, ENTITLED "TOWN REGULATION OF MILK SALES."

It is enacted by the General Assembly as follows:

SECTION 1: Sections 21-7-1 and 21-7-2 of the General Laws, 1956, in Chapter 21-7, entitled "Town Regulation of Milk Sales" is hereby amended to read as follows:

"21-7-1. No person, firm or corporation, as principal, servant or agent, shall sell, exchange or deliver, or have in his or its possession, care, custody or control, with intent to sell, exchange or deliver, in any manner whatsoever, milk, cream or skimmed milk within any city, unless such person, firm or corporation shall have first obtained and have in force a license therefor from the City Council of such city. In the City of Providence the Bureau of Licenses shall be the agency for the issuance of milk licenses."

"21-7-2. The City Council of such city may grant licenses to any person, firm or corporation making written application therefor at the office of the inspector of milk of such city on printed form or forms provided for that purpose by such inspector of milk. Such application shall state the name, residence, and location of the business place or places of the applicant, the number and the description of each and every wagon, carriage or other vehicle used by the applicant in the milk, cream or skimmed milk business, and the names and residences of all persons from whom such applicant purchases any milk, cream or skimmed milk. Any licensee hereunder shall at any time, on request of said inspector, give said inspector such information. All applications shall be signed by the applicant, and in case of corporations so applying the application shall be made by the treasurer or other duly authorized officer thereof, and the names of the officers of any corporation so applying, or to which such license is granted, shall be furnished in writing by such corporation to such inspector at any time on his request. The inspector of milk shall promptly present to said City Council each such application with his recommendations thereon in writing. Said City Council may by ordinance establish a system of fees to be paid for the licenses prescribed by Section 21-7-1 hereof, said fees not to exceed the following sum:

For each and every pasteurizing plant	$50
For every dealer's license	25
For every vehicle	10

All licenses issued shall expire on the first Monday of February next following the date of such license."

SEC. 2. This Act shall take effect upon its passage, and all acts and parts of acts inconsistent herewith are hereby repealed.

AN ACT
IN AMENDMENT OF SECTION 47-2-7 OF THE GENERAL LAWS, 1956, IN CHAPTER
47-2 ENTITLED "TOWN SEALERS."

IT IS ENACTED BY THE GENERAL ASSEMBLY AS FOLLOWS:

SECTION 1: Section 47-2-7 of the General Laws, 1956, in Chapter
47-2 entitled "Town Sealers" is hereby amended to read as follows:

"47-2-7. Fees and Compensation of Sealer--Condemnation of Incorrect Scales.--The sealer of weights and measures, in any town or city, shall receive a fee of 6 cents for every weight, wine or dry measure, sealed by him as his office; he shall receive a fee of 10 cents for every yard-stick or yard-measure sealed by him; and for sealing every spring-balance of a capacity less than 100 pounds he shall receive a fee of 50 cents; for every spring-balance of a capacity of 100 and less than 500 pounds, one dollar; for every platform-scale of a capacity of 5,000 pounds or more $2.00; for every balance of a capacity of less than 5,000 pounds, $1.00; for every stool-yard of a capacity of 50 pounds or less, 50 cents; and for every stool-yard of a capacity over 50 pounds, $1.00; every scale or balance used for weighing people shall be tested, and if found correct shall be sealed, by the said sealer, and he shall receive a fee of $1.00 for each and every scale or balance so sealed. If any of the said scales or balances are found to be incorrect, then they shall be condemned and their use forbidden as hereinbefore provided. For proving and sealing seal and used balances he shall receive a fee of 10 cents each, and for every charcoal-baskets so sealed, 40 cents; he shall also have a reasonable compensation for all repairs, alterations, and adjustments which it may be necessary for him to make, made by him, and for the expenses incurred in visiting any place, as provided for in §47-2-3 of this chapter. Such fees and compensation shall be paid to said sealer by the person owning or using the weights, measures or balances so adjusted and sealed. Every person violating the provisions of this section shall be fined not exceeding $20.00 for each offense, one-half thereof to go to the town or city and one-half to the complainant. All said fees received by any sealer of weights and measures of any town or city shall be retained by him as compensation for his services except as hereinafter provided. Any town or city council may at any time by ordinance fix an annual salary for the sealer of weights and measures of such town or city, and in such case said fees received by him shall be paid over by him to the town or city treasurer, at the time or times prescribed by any ordinance of such town or city."

SAC. 2. This Act shall take effect upon its passage, and all acts or parts of acts inconsistent herewith are hereby repealed.

AN ACT

IN AMENDMENT OF SECTIONS 1 AND 2 OF CHAPTER 101A OF THE 1932 PUBLIC LAWS ENTITLED, "AN ACT TO REGULATE PUBLIC LODGING-HOUSES IN THE CITY OF PROVIDENCE."

It is enacted by the General Assembly as follows:

SECTION 1. Sections 1 and 2 of Chapter 101A of the 1932 Public Laws, entitled "An Act to Regulate Public Lodging-Houses in the City of Providence," is hereby amended to read as follows:

"Section 1. Every building or part thereof in the city of Providence, in which ten or more persons are lodged for a price for a single night of one dollar or less for each person, shall be deemed a public lodging-house within the meaning of this act.

"Sec. 2. The Bureau of Licenses for said City may license persons to keep public lodging-houses in said City. A fee of ten ($10) dollars shall be charged for each license, and it shall expire on the first day of February next after the granting of the same, but no fee shall be charged for each license in each such building or part thereof so licensed as a tavern. Every such license shall specify the street or other place, and the number of the building, or give some other particular description thereof, where the licensee shall exercise his employment; and the license shall not protect a person exercising his employment in any other place than that so specified."

SEC. 2. This act shall take effect upon its passage, and all acts or parts of acts inconsistent herewith are hereby repealed.
