March 13, 2014

The Honorable Angel Taveras
Chairman, Board of Contract & Supply
City Hall
Providence, RI 02903

Dear Mayor Taveras;

The Providence Police Departments respectfully requests authorization to encumber funds in the amount of $ 25,000 for the purchase of a Ford E-250 cargo van from:

Manheim, New England
123 Williams Street, P.O. Box 1
North Dighton, MA 02764-0001

This van is to be used for the transport of prisoners. The department has one van to transport prisoners and it is in poor condition. For additional savings, we will be removing the prisoner insert of the old van to the new one, hence the specific type of vehicle needed.

Guidelines mandate that all expenditures be paid by the end of the next business day; therefore, a check for the total amount of the expenditures will be requested on the next business day.

Funding for this is available in account 839-839-53500.

Respectfully submitted,

A handwritten signature in black ink, appearing to read "Hugh T. Clements", is written over a horizontal line.

Colonel Hugh T. Clements
Chief of Police
