CHAPTER 1695

No. 368 AN ORDINANCE PROVIDING FOR THE REMOVAL OF JUNKED
OR ABANDONED VEHICLES.

Approved May 21, 1965

Be it ordained by the City of Providence:

WHEREAS, the presence of dismantled, junked or abandoned vehicles on public or private property constitutes an attractive nuisance for children and endangers their safety; provides harborage for rats and other animals, constituting a menace to public health; creates a fire hazard, causes neighborhoods to become unsightly, resulting in the depreciation of property values; and if on city streets or public highways creates a traffic hazard and endangers the public safety.

NOW THEREFORE BE IT ORDAINED BY THE CITY OF PROVIDENCE:

SECTION 1. No person, firm or corporation shall deposit, store, keep or permit to be deposited, stored, or kept in the open upon public or private property a dismantled, unserviceable, junked or abandoned vehicle, or one legally or physically incapable of being operated, unless a license for said storage has theretofore been obtained from the proper authority.

SECTION 2. (a) The owner of any aforescribed vehicle shall remove the same within seven days after being ordered so to do in writing by the owner, lessee or occupant of the premises where said vehicle shall be found. If the owner of any aforesaid vehicle is not known or cannot readily be ascertained, notice to remove may be given by attaching such notice to said aforesaid vehicle. The Police Department upon request therefor shall assist in ascertaining the name and address of the owner of any such vehicle.

STATE OF RHODE ISLAND AND PROVIDENCE PLANTATIONS

(b) If the owner of any aforesaid vehicle is also the owner, lessee, or occupant of the premises, notice to remove as aforesaid shall be given by the Police Department.

(c) If said vehicle is on a City street or public highway, forty-eight hour notice as aforesaid to remove the same shall be given by the Police Department, provided that if said vehicle constitutes a present hazard or unduly obstructs traffic ingress to or egress from private or public property, the same may be removed by said Police Department without any prior notice.

(d) An unregistered vehicle on premises not owned or occupied by the owner of said vehicle may be deemed to be abandoned.

SECTION 3. Upon failure to remove any aforesaid vehicle within the time limited herein, said owner, lessee, occupant of the premises or Police Department shall forthwith remove or cause the said vehicle to be removed from the premises to a location to be provided for said purpose by the City.

SECTION 4. The owner of any vehicle so removed may regain possession thereof from said City by making application therefor within two months after its receipt by said City upon paying to said City all reasonable costs of removal, which shall be repaid to the person who paid or incurred such charges, plus an additional charge of Fifteen ($15.00) Dollars for storage charges of said vehicle while in possession of said City.

SECTION 5. If no claim for said aforescribed vehicle is made within two months after receipt thereof, said City may sell said vehicle for the best price obtainable as junk or otherwise and the proceeds thereof shall be available to pay the reasonable charges of delivering the same to said City if a claim therefor be made by the person who paid said charges, the expense of keeping and disposing of said vehicle, and any balance shall be paid into the General Fund.

SECTION 6. Neither the owner, lessee or occupant of the premises from which any aforescribed vehicle shall be removed, his or its servant or agent, or the City, shall be liable for and loss or damage to said vehicle while being removed, or while in the possession of said City, or as a result of any subsequent sale or other disposition.

The City of Providence

SECTION 7. (a) Dismantled, junked or abandoned vehicles shall be deemed to include major parts thereof including bodies, engines, transmissions, rear ends, etc.

(b) Public property shall include property owned by the City or State property acquired by the City at tax sales and all streets and highways within the City whether or not they are public highways.

(c) A vehicle legally or physically incapable of being operated shall include one which has not been duly registered according to law or which lacks the equipment in good operating condition as required by law to enable it to be registered.

(d) Premises shall include public or private property, City streets and public highways.

SECTION 8. Any person, firm or corporation required by the provisions hereof to remove any aforesaid vehicle who shall fail so to do shall be guilty of an offense punishable in accordance with the provisions of Chapter I, Section 10 of the Revised Ordinances of 1946, as amended.

SECTION 9. This Ordinance shall take effect upon its passage.
