

RESOLUTION OF THE CITY COUNCIL

No. 459

Approved August 7, 1959

Whereas, Edwin Munroe Knights after 26 years of employment as an official in the Dept. of Health has requested retirement, and

WHEREAS, Dr. Knights, as Deputy Inspector of Milk and Deputy Health Officer in Charge of Sanitation, has won national acclaim in the field of Public Health by his accomplishments in sanitation and bacteriology and thereby brought honor and renown to the City of Providence. The United States Public Health Service recognizing his work in Rat Control sought his assistance which was freely given and used throughout the country. His firm but fair policing of the sanitation code has placed Providence in an enviable position in the Public Health field. He devised the so called "Providence Pack" now in general use for mass inoculations.

NOW, THEREFORE, BE IT RESOLVED, That Mayor Reynolds and the members of this City Council while regretting that his services are no longer available to the City; congratulate and thank Dr. Knights for his many accomplishments in the field of public health and earnestly hope that many years of health and happiness await him so that he will see his recent planting of spruce seedlings grow to their full maturity.

RESOLUTION NO. 2194

Antonia Tirocchi
836 Plainfield Street
Providence, Rhode Island

Dear Madam:

At a meeting of the Zoning Board of Review held on Monday, June 15, 1959, the following resolution was adopted:

WHEREAS, Antonia Tirocchi, owner of Lot 269 on Assocco's Plot 65 (946 Chalkstone Avenue) in a Commercial C-1 Zone, on April 15, 1959, filed an application for permission to increase the underground storage facilities for petroleum products on the above described premises from 6,500 gallons to 10,500 gallons, and

WHEREAS, a public hearing was held on this application by the Zoning Board of Review at its meeting held on Tuesday, June 9, 1959, after public notice as provided by the Zoning Ordinance,

RESOLVED: That the Zoning Board of Review does hereby make a variation of the use district regulations under the Zoning Ordinance and does hereby grant the application of Antonia Tirocchi substantially in accordance with the plans and plot plan filed with said Board. A copy of said plans and plot plan are hereby made a part of this resolution and filed with the Director of the Department of Building Inspection.

By Order of the Zoning Board of Review.
