This is to advise that Mr. Owens passed away on October 7, 1972 and therefore the above bond is no longer needed.

To clear the Company's records, we would appreciate a notation from you on the bottom of this letter confirming that this bond will be cancelled on your records. We enclose a return envelope for your convenience.

Dear Mrs. Santangini:

This is in response to your November 1, 1972 correspondence relative to Joseph J. Owens, contractor's Bond.

The cancellation of this Bond is the responsibility of your company rather than the City clerk. Albeit, the subject has passed away on October 7, 1972, and the Bond runs to the individual.

Accordingly, I must assume it ceases to be effective for that reason.

Very truly yours,
