PRINCIPAL PLANNER

CLASS TITLE: Principal Planner

CLASS DEFINITION: Responsible administrative and technical planning and urban renewal work of professional nature in assisting the Deputy Director in the conduct of the departmental program in all its phases, and related work work as required.

DISTINGUISHING FEATURES OF WORK: Under supervision of the Director and the Deputy Director the Principal Planner is charged with responsibility for administering the policies of the Department; for assigning and reviewing work within the scope of his responsibility; and for planning the various staff activities of the Department. Acts for the Deputy Director during his absence. Work assignments are received from a superior and are usually general in nature and afford a wide latitude for the exercise of independent judgment in planning work details and making work assignments. Work is reviewed in its broader aspects for compliance with the standards and policies of the Department.

ILLUSTRATIVE EXAMPLES OF WORK: Under the general supervision of the Deputy Director supervises and participates in the organization and development of the planning and urban renewal program. Executes administrative or technical tasks of a complex nature. Makes work assignments and supervises a division of the technical staff in the compilation and interpretation of physical, social and economic data used in the analysis of planning and urban renewal problems and in the design of the solution to these problems. Acts as technical advisor to the staff on all planning and urban renewal studies; coordinates the various phases of staff activities, with special emphasis on urban design or on research and analysis. Assists in the evaluation of data affecting location and design of projects. When required, represents the Deputy Director at conferences to discuss and explain departmental activities.

DESIRABLE KNOWLEDGES, SKILLS AND ABILITIES: Detailed knowledge of the elements and techniques involved in city planning; involving capital improvements and urban renewal programs, and general administrative ability to plan, assign and supervise the work of a technical staff and to effect and transmit conclusions; and to meet and confer with technical groups on general planning and urban renewal matters. Knowledge of regular procedures in drafting and ability to do complex technical research and analysis, compile comprehensive reports and make recommendations for the practicable application of findings. Ability to establish and maintain effective working relationships with city officials and the public.

QUALIFICATIONS REQUIRED FOR APPOINTMENT: Graduation from a recognized college or university with degree in city planning, or extensive experience in a responsible position in the field of city planning demonstrating that the applicant has the ability to perform completely the duties of this position. The required amount of education or experience will not in itself be accepted as proof of qualification for a position.

CITY HALL, PROVIDENCE, RHODE ISLAND 02903

March 25, 1969

The Honorable Robert J. Lynch
Chairman
Committee on Finances
City Hall
Providence, Rhode Island

Dear Mr. Lynch:

This letter is in respect to the four (4) new principle planner positions which were introduced into the City Council at its last regular meeting. Inadvertently, the pay grade for these new positions was set forth in the Ordinance as pay grade 23. This should have been pay grade 25.

I respectfully request that this particular Ordinance be amended in Committee to correct this situation.

Very truly yours,

Vincent Pallozzi
