

RESOLUTION OF THE CITY COUNCIL

No. 253

Approved May 2, 1994

WHEREAS, The New England Association of Schools and Colleges has renewed Mount Pleasant High School's accreditation for ten years, and

WHEREAS, Principal Maria Wilk and her dedicated staff at Mount Pleasant High School are to be commended for their endless dedication and hard work on behalf of the students at Mount Pleasant, and

WHEREAS, With the many challenges our inner city schools face, this is certainly an opportunity for us to recognize this notable achievement. Ms. Wilk and our Administrators, Teachers and Staff at Mount Pleasant High School have gained the respect of our students through their continued spirit of cooperation and team work, and

WHEREAS, From their example, our students at Mount Pleasant know that their ultimate success will be gained through a fine educational experience at Mount Pleasant which is the result of everyone's hard work and dedication, and

WHEREAS, Through it's community awareness, this institution has enjoyed the renewed sense of fellowship with it's neighbors and has instilled a sense of pride and accomplishment in the Mount Pleasant area. Through their enthusiastic student activities, a positive attitude has been achieved through it's parent organization and student body,

NOW, THEREFORE, BE IT RESOLVED, That the members of the Providence City Council applaud the efforts of everyone at Mount Pleasant High School and are pleased to support this fine institution's students, faculty and staff.

RESOLUTION OF THE CITY COUNCIL

No. 254

Approved May 2, 1994

WHEREAS, Alphonse Di Gregorio, a resident of the City of Providence, and a native of Italy, graduated from Hope High School in 1973, graduated from Rhode Island College in 1977, and attended Providence College where he received his Teaching Degree. He is the father of Eric Reid Di Gregorio and Cassandra Marie DiGregorio, and

WHEREAS, "Al" as he came to be known, started his athletic career at Rhode Island College as a member of their soccer team and also played semi-pro soccer in Italy, and

WHEREAS, His career in education began when he taught in Spain for two years and in the Westerly School System for seven years. The City of Providence was fortunate to add "Al" to its teaching ranks at Bridgham Middle School where he then became affectionately known as "Mr. D", and

WHEREAS, Some may say that it was there at Bridgham Middle School where "Mr. D" successfully encouraged so many young men and women to begin to love the sport of learning and athletics. These young men and women were so motivated by his enthusiasm, that both he and they continued on to High School where he presently teaches both Italian and Spanish, and

WHEREAS, "Mr. D" started the boys soccer club and Athletes for Hope, at Hope High School in 1989, and in September of 1993, he was named Athletic Director at Hope High School, and

WHEREAS, There is no truer testament to "Mr. D's" talent for developing young student athletes than to meet those students at Hope High School who have been honored for winning the 1993-94 Rhode Island Class "A" State Basketball Championship and feel their compassion and respect for "their" Athletic Director. "Mr. D" is a unique individual who has certainly proven his unquestionable dedication and love for our High School students, not only at Hope High School, but throughout our City,

NOW, THEREFORE, BE IT RESOLVED, That the Members of the Providence City Council do hereby express their sincere gratitude and congratulations to Alphonse DiGregorio for a job well done and we implore him to continue his truly "one of a kind" method of teaching and coaching.
