An Ordinance Providing Emergency Police Details for Certain Establishments.

Be it Ordained by the City of Providence:

Section 1. The Commissioner of Public Safety shall receive weekly reports from the Board of Licenses. Those reports shall contain the name and address of any establishment to which public safety personnel were summoned for any loud or disturbing or violent conduct on the part of patrons or establishment personnel. The report shall also include any complaints of such conduct filed with the Board of Licenses whether or not public safety personnel were dispatched to the premises.

Section 2. The Public Safety Commissioner shall, on a weekly basis, review such reports together with any other reliable information available to him or her concerning the premises. After such review, he or she shall determine whether the public safety of the patrons or employees or general public require the placement of detail police officers at the premises.

Section 3. From the whole of the circumstances surrounding said incident(s), the Commissioner shall review and decide upon the necessity of police detail officers. Among the factors included in that review, the Commissioner shall consider:

- a. the nature and scope of the incident;
- b. whether or not physical harm was occasioned by the incident and the seriousness of that harm;
- c. the record of said premises and owners/managers with respect to incidents of like character; and

d. the benefit to the public good occasioned by the imposition of police details.

If, after such review, the Commissioner so decides, the owner/manager of the premises shall be required at the establishment's own cost to place detail police officer(s) in a number determined by the Commissioner. Said placement shall be for not more than three weeks. After said period, the Commissioner shall again review any additional information available to him/her and may revise the number of detail police officers required or may eliminate such detail.

The Commissioner shall continue this three-week cycle until such time as he/she determines that no further details are necessary.

Section 4. Prior to any order by the Commissioner, he or she shall notify the owner/operator of the premises under review of the same and shall offer the owner/operator an opportunity to present any evidence which he or she believes to affect the Commissioner's decision.

Section 5. Failure of any premises to abide by the decision and order of the Commissioner shall be punishable by the penalties listed in Section 1-10 in this Code and the Commissioner shall report such failure to the Chairman of the Board of Licenses for appropriate action.

The Motion for Passage is Sustained.

Resolution Extending Sincere Congratulations to Barbara A. Poirier, First Deputy City Clerk, upon her retirement from the City Clerk's Department after Fifteen (15) years of dedicated service to the City of Providence.

Whereas, Barbara A. Poirier became an employee of this great City of Providence as a Clerk Stenographer III, and

Whereas, During Barbara A. Poirier's years of service in the Department of the City Clerk, she rose to the ranks of various positions, such as in October of 1987, Barbara became the Administrative Assistant to the City Clerk, and in April of 1987, became Second Deputy City Clerk, and finally on January 17, 2000 Barbara was appointed to First Deputy City Clerk, and

Whereas, As the years past Barbara did excel by taking on various jobs and never once complaining, but wanted to learn everything about the Department, and

Whereas, Barbara is married to Robert E. Poirier, and they are the proud parents of three wonderful sons, Robert Jr., Thomas and William. Robert and Barbara also have four grandchildren, James, Ryan, Hannah and Matthew, and

Whereas, Barbara has not only worked for a number of City Council people, but served under two Mayors, Mayor Vincent A. Cianci, Jr. and Joseph A. Paolino. Barbara also worked under two City Clerks, Rose M. Mendonca and Michael R. Clement, and will be missed by all.

Now, Therefore, Be it Resolved, That His Honor the Mayor and the Honorable Members of the Providence City Council do hereby congratulate Barbara A. Poirier upon her retirement from the Department of the City Clerk and wish her and her family good health, but most of all she will have plenty of time to enjoy her grandchildren's soccer, baseball and basketball games, but mostly she will have plenty of time to help her husband Bob do some cooking.

Read and Passed on Motion of COUNCILMAN ALLEN, seconded by COUNCILWOMAN WILLIAMS.

The Motion for Passage is Sustained.

PERSONAL EXPRESSION

COUNCILMAN CLARKIN Requests the privilege of the floor to speak on a point of Personal Expression and states:

"Tonight is the last council meeting that Barbara Poirier will ever attend in an official capacity. She has put in 15 years with the city, and her work in that time has always been done with proficiency and professionalism. Barbara started at the City Clerk's Office as a clerk and worked her way up to First Deputy Clerk. She has performed all her duties in an unbiased manner, helping any and all that ask for advice from that office. She took no sides in the political intrigue that this building is well known for. She treated each citizen and each council person with dignity and respect, no matter who they were, no matter which side they were supposed to be on, she treated them the same. Barbara grew up around the corner from me, and today, we are both back in the family homesteads that we lived in as kids. Even then, as a teenager, Barbara was known for being circumspect in her work. I can remember when Barbara, at the age of 18, became the treasurer of a 25th anniversary time for Father Beane, a local parish priest. Those that worked with her on that project . . . and my father was one of them . . . marveled at the job she had done. Like her work here, each report was done meticulously. As a close friend of Carolyn Brassil, she was very instrumental in helping Carolyn become the first woman elected to this council. She has been a lifelong friend of mine, and I know that she has been a friend to each of you. Barbara, you will be missed by this council, but I can understand your wanting the freedom that retirement will bring you. Good Luck."

PERSONAL EXPRESSION

COUNCILWOMAN YOUNG Requests the privilege of the floor to speak on a point of Personal Expression and states:

"I, too, want to thank Barbara for the wonderful job she has done. I have been here for over 13 years. For some that will seem too long, for others it is not long enough, but I am still here. Barbara, I just think you have done a marvelous job here for the City Council members, and for the public, and you have always had a smile. You were always cheerful, you were always pleasant, no matter what the situation was. When we were being . . . taking opposite sides and going at one another in our battle to do the best we can for the people that we represent, you were always there with a kind word for all of us, and a friendly smile. Lately we have been talking about our grandbabies, the two of us, how we have grandsons the two of us. Matthew is here, and I have a grandson named Evan, and we have been comparing notes with our grandbabies and we have had some wonderful stories to tell about them, but I think it is time you checked on your husband to see what he is up to. It is time you retired.

Robert has been out there too long without your guidance and support and that is why we want to let you go at this point and time because Robert needs that guiding hand once again. We certainly do love you Barbara. We are definitely going to miss you, and nobody can fill your shoes, believe me. They will have to start their own path, but we do love you dearly, but you do need to be home. Now is the time to enjoy your family and enjoy your grandchildren, and God Bless."
