RESOLUTION OF THE CITY COUNCIL

No. 175

Approved March 24, 1966

WHEREAS the undersigned are residents and property owners of real estate located on certain unnamed gangway lying between Manton Avenue and Atwells Avenue in the City of Providence.

WHEREAS the northerly termination of said unnamed gangway is at the southerly line of Atwells Avenue and

WHEREAS the public highway Lynch Street has its southerly termination at the northerly line of Atwells Avenue approximately opposite the northerly termination of the above mentioned unnamed gangway.

WHEREAS the undersigned for many years have been residents and land owners of the real estate located at the southeasterly corner of Atwells Avenue and the northerly termination of said unnamed gangway and

WHEREAS the undersigned for many years have used a designation and address of No. 5 Lynch Street on the real estate so owned by them and

WHEREAS the undersigned, Michael Petronelli has recently constructed a one-family dwelling on the easterly side of said unnamed gangway approximately midway between Atwells Avenue and Manton Avenue and is the sole and only resident whose house fronts on said unnamed gangway.

WHEREAS said unnamed gangway has for many years been known as Lynch Street to the residents and neighbors in the area and

WHEREAS to designate said unnamed gangway by any other name would result in a great hardship to the undersigned.

NOW THEREFORE it is respectfully requested that your Honorable Body name and designate that certain unnamed gangway described above as Lynch Street.

RE: Unnamed gangway between Atwells Avenue and Manton
Avenue

Dear Vin:

Enclosed is a Petition signed by the Petronelli family requesting that the above unnamed gangway be named Lynch Street. I discussed this matter with Tom Paine and indicated that a Petition would be forthcoming.

As indicated in the Petition, Michael Petronelli is the only individual whose house actually fronts on this unnamed gangway and whose street address will bear the name of this unnamed gangway. His father and family have for years lived on the corner of Lynch and Atwells Avenue and have for some reason always used the address, No. 5 Lynch Street.

Your attention to this matter will be greatly appreciated.

Very truly yours,

Anthony B. Sciarretta
