THIRD WORLD COALITION OF ARTISTS

April 6, 1983

Councilman Thomas Glavin
City Council
City Hall
Providence, RI 02903

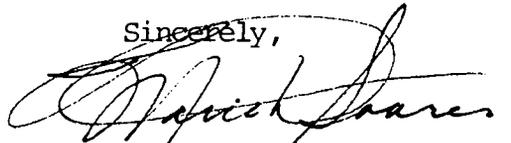

Dear Councilman Glavin:

The Third World Coalition of Artists at Rhode Island School of Design would like to request that the block between Waterman and College Streets, (on Benefit Street), be closed to traffic on Saturday, April 30, 1983 from 9:00 am to 4:00 pm for the purpose of holding activities for "Kid's Day".

"Kid's Day" is an annual event which is part of the Third World Weekend at RISD. This year we would like to use the street area to set up a stage for dance performances. The street would also be used for games and art demonstrations.

We also feel that by not having traffic on that block, it would create a safer atmosphere for the children and contain them in one area. Thank you for your time and consideration.

Sincerely,

Maria D. Soares
President
T.W.C.A.
