The number of employees in the Office of the Mayor shall not be limited. The Mayor may appoint without reference to civil service provisions and without the necessity for approval by the City Council, a Chief of Staff and such Deputies, Assistants, Aides, Secretaries, Stenographers, Clerks and other personnel, as he may deem necessary.

SECTION 62

No person shall be appointed to, and the City Treasurer shall not pay, nor shall an officer or employee of the city issue a check for the payment of, nor pay any salary or compensations to a person holding or claiming to hold a position in the classified service in any department which is in excess of the total number of positions or the number of any individual class of positions provided herein for the particular development; provided, however, that with the approval of the department head and the Director of Finance, said maximum may be exceeded temporarily when regular employees are absent on vacation and the excess employees do not aggregate more than the number on vacation or during the absences of employees on sick leave, and it is necessary to employ temporary employees for the duration of the employee's sick leave, or during the absences of employees who have been granted a temporary leave of absence or when in the opinion of the Director of Finance, a temporary emergency exists.

SECTION 63

Where no maximum limit is fixed on the total number of positions or the number of any individual class of positions in a department, the number of persons appointed and employees shall be determined by the unexpended appropriation available.

SECTION 64

Effective with the adoption of this Ordinance, Officers and Employees of the City of Providence may authorize Employees to perform duties of a higher rated classification only when a temporary vacancy exists in the higher rated classification, cause by leave or retirement, and that said position is funded and provided for in this Ordinance. Said assignment may be for a maximum of 90 days per fiscal year with notice to the Personnel Director. Any period longer than 90 days shall be approved by the Personnel Director and such approval with reasons for the extension shall be provided to the City Council.

SECTION 65

(Providence Home Rule Charter Section 810).

The mayor may authorize a transfer of a portion of any unencumbered item of appropriation as certified by the finance director to another item of appropriation either within a single department, office or agency of the city or between two (2) or more such departments, offices or agencies, except appropriations for payments to the sinking fund, city debt or retirement fund, provided that no transfer shall exceed five thousand dollars ($5,000.00) in the aggregate within one fiscal year, and provided further that the mayor shall notify the city council of the transfer. If the amount to be transferred exceed five thousand dollars ($5,000.00), it shall be the duty of the mayor to submit the proposal in writing to the city council for approval or rejection before such transfer is accomplished; provided, however, that the city council may alter the ceiling of five thousand dollars ($5,000.00) by a two-thirds vote of its entire membership following a public hearing. If the transfer is approved by resolution of the city council, the finance director shall cause the amounts of the appropriations affected to be transferred accordingly.

SECTION 66. No officer or employee shall receive any payment deemed to be a purported retroactive payment for employment prior to the current budget year, with the exception of a binding arbitration award, court order, or equivalent order.

SECTION 67. ~~No vehicle owned or leased by the City of Providence shall leave the City of Providence's boundaries except for official business without the City receiving from the employee the current standard mileage rate (currently 55 cents per mile) as determined by the Internal Revenue Service for the travel outside of the City limits. Commuting miles shall not be official business under this section.~~
