

RESOLUTION OF THE CITY COUNCIL

No. 402

Approved September 11, 1992

WHEREAS, in order to clarify certain provisions of the Providence Home Rule Charter of 1980 and in order to more efficaciously administer the City, the following amendment to the Providence Home Rule Charter of 1980 shall be incorporated into said document; and

WHEREAS, the Providence Home Rule Charter of 1980 originally contained a requirement of residency for new municipal employees; and

WHEREAS, at the general election of November, 1990, certain broad exemptions to the residency requirements were enacted; and

WHEREAS, it is believed that a general requirement of residency is in the best interests of the City; and

WHEREAS, it is sought to re-establish residency requirements along the lines of those first contained in the Providence Home Rule Charter of 1980,

NOW, THEREFORE, BE IT RESOLVED:

That Section 1210 of the Providence Home Rule Charter of 1980 as amended be and is repealed in its entirety, and

That in its stead, the following additions and amendments be made to the Providence Home Rule Charter of 1980:

"Section 1210. RESIDENCE REQUIREMENT; EXEMPTIONS.

All officers of the city as defined in section 1207, and all employees of the city and of any and all agencies and instrumentalities thereof, including all employees of the school department and the department of public safety, shall be residents of the city during such employment; provided, however, that any person employed by the city on the date upon which this provision takes effect shall not be subject to the foregoing provision. Persons not residents of the city may be appointed or engaged for employment on the condition that within six (6) months of such appointment or engagement they shall become residents of the city. Residence shall be defined for purposes of this section as being domiciled in the City of Providence according to the definition of domicile set forth in section 206. Any officer or employee of the city who, during employment, ceases to be a resident shall forfeit his or her position in the employ of the city. It shall be the duty of the Director of Personnel to monitor this residency requirement on a timely basis and report any violations to the Mayor and City Council for appropriate action. Upon certification by the Mayor that after diligent search no person with proper qualifications can be found to fill a particular position among residents of the city, the City Council may exempt a nonresident employee from the provisions of this section.

Section 903. DIRECTOR OF PERSONNEL; DUTIES AND POWERS

(p) It shall be the duty of the Director of Personnel to monitor on a timely basis the residency requirements set forth in Section 1210 of this charter and report any violations to the Mayor and city council for appropriate action."

That the question of the proposed amendment be submitted to the electors of the City of Providence at the next general election to be called on November 3, 1992 in substantially the following form:

"Shall the Charter be amended to require that all new City employees reside in the City of Providence?"
(amendments to Sections 1210 and 903 of the Providence Home Rule Charter of 1980)

That the City Clerk forward certified copies of this resolution to the Secretary of State, with a notice that the above question be placed on the ballot and be submitted to said electors at the November 3, 1992 general election, pursuant to the provisions of Sec. 8 of Article XIII of the Constitution of the State of Rhode Island. The City Clerk shall also forward a certified copy of this resolution to the board of canvassers of the City of Providence and to the board of elections of the State of Rhode Island.

Subject to the approval of this proposed amendment by the electors of the City of Providence at the aforesaid election, the effective date of such amendment shall be January 1, 1993.
