

RESOLUTION OF THE CITY COUNCIL

No. 205

Approved May 12, 2023

RESOLVED, That the Members of the City Council hereby extend their Sincere Congratulations to the following:

Councilwoman Jo-Ann Ryan, in recognition of the celebration of your birthday on Saturday, January 21st, 2023.

Councilwoman Helen D. Anthony, in recognition of the celebration of your birthday on Friday, March 17th, 2023.

Senior Deputy Majority Leader John Goncalves, in recognition of the celebration of your birthday on Sunday, March 30th, 2023.

Councilwoman Althea Graves, in recognition of the celebration of your birthday on Friday, March 7th, 2023.

Deputy Majority Leader Mary Kay Harris, in recognition of the celebration of your birthday on Friday, March 21st, 2023.

Cambodian Society of Rhode Island, in recognition of the celebration of the Cambodian New Year.

Wat Thormikaram of Rhode Island, in recognition of the celebration of the Cambodian New Year.

Dr. José Ángel Rodríguez, in recognition of your visit to the City of Providence and for your lifetime commitment of advocacy for Mexican Americans.

Captain Alyssa B. DeAndrade, Providence Police Department, in recognition of the celebration of your promotion to Major.

Sergeant Timothy E. Pickering, Providence Police Department, in recognition of the celebration of your promotion to Lieutenant.

Sergeant Eugene K. Chin, Providence Police Department, in recognition of the celebration of your promotion to Lieutenant.

Officer Donald J. Castigliero, Jr., Providence Police Department, in recognition of the celebration of your promotion to Sergeant.

Detective Kyle B. Endres, Providence Police Department, in recognition of the celebration of your promotion to Sergeant.

Jacqueline Toliver, in recognition of your hard work with the Rhode Island School Recycling Program in implementing a food waste diversion program at the Leviton Dual Language Elementary School, helping to divert 1.1 tons of healthy, edible food that would have gone into the trash and landfill and instead now goes to students who are hungry and will divert 3.8 tons of food waste from the landfill to be converted into compost that will help farmers grow more crops.

Carmen D. Morales, in recognition of your hard work with the Rhode Island School Recycling Program in implementing a food waste diversion program at the Leviton Dual Language Elementary School, helping to divert 1.1 tons of healthy, edible food that would have gone into the trash and landfill and instead now goes to students who are hungry and will divert 3.8 tons of food waste from the landfill to be converted into compost that will help farmers grow more crops.

Bienvenida Hiraldo, in recognition of your hard work with the Rhode Island School Recycling Program in implementing a food waste diversion program at the Leviton Dual Language Elementary School, helping to divert 1.1 tons of healthy, edible food that would have gone into the trash and landfill and instead now goes to students who are hungry and will divert 3.8 tons of food waste from the landfill to be converted into compost that will help farmers grow more crops.

Lenny Gonzalves, in recognition of your hard work with the Rhode Island School Recycling Program in implementing a food waste diversion program at the Leviton Dual Language Elementary School, helping to divert 1.1 tons of healthy, edible food that would have gone into the trash and landfill and instead now goes to students who are hungry and will divert 3.8 tons of food waste from the landfill to be converted into compost that will help farmers grow more crops.

Ramona Germosen, in recognition of your hard work with the Rhode Island School Recycling Program in implementing a food waste diversion program at the Leviton Dual Language Elementary School, helping to divert 1.1 tons of healthy, edible food that would have gone into the trash and landfill and instead now goes to students who are hungry and will divert 3.8 tons of food waste from the landfill to be converted into compost that will help farmers grow more crops.

Ino Maria Luz, in recognition of your hard work with the Rhode Island School Recycling Program in implementing a food waste diversion program at the Leviton Dual Language Elementary School, helping to divert 1.1 tons of healthy, edible food that would have gone into the trash and landfill and instead now goes to students who are hungry and will divert 3.8 tons of food waste from the landfill to be converted into compost that will help farmers grow more crops.

Juan Palma, in recognition of your hard work with the Rhode Island School Recycling Program in implementing a food waste diversion program at the Leviton Dual Language Elementary School, helping to divert 1.1 tons of healthy, edible food that would have gone into the trash and landfill and instead now goes to students who are hungry and will divert 3.8 tons of food waste from the landfill to be converted into compost that will help farmers grow more crops.

Rosemary Colt, in recognition of your hard work with the Rhode Island School Recycling Program in implementing a food waste diversion program at the Leviton Dual Language Elementary School, helping to divert 1.1 tons of healthy, edible food that would have gone into the trash and landfill and instead now goes to students who are hungry and will divert 3.8 tons of food waste from the landfill to be converted into compost that will help farmers grow more crops.

Nicholas Gareca, in recognition of your hard work with the Rhode Island School Recycling Program in implementing a food waste diversion program at the Leviton Dual Language Elementary School, helping to divert 1.1 tons of healthy, edible food that would have gone into the trash and landfill and instead now goes to students who are hungry and will divert 3.8 tons of food waste from the landfill to be converted into compost that will help farmers grow more crops.

Carol Pagan, in recognition of your hard work with the Rhode Island School Recycling Program in implementing a food waste diversion program at the Leviton Dual Language Elementary School, helping to divert 1.1 tons of healthy, edible food that would have gone into the trash and landfill and instead now goes to students who are hungry and will divert 3.8 tons of food waste from the landfill to be converted into compost that will help farmers grow more crops.

Deidania Peña-DaRosa, in recognition of your hard work with the Rhode Island School Recycling Program in implementing a food waste diversion program at the Leviton Dual Language Elementary School, helping to divert 1.1 tons of healthy, edible food that would have gone into the trash and landfill and instead now goes to students who are hungry and will divert 3.8 tons of food waste from the landfill to be converted into compost that will help farmers grow more crops.

Martin Quirk, in recognition of your hard work with the Rhode Island School Recycling Program in implementing a food waste diversion program at the Leviton Dual Language Elementary School, helping to divert 1.1 tons of healthy, edible food that would have gone into the trash and landfill and instead now goes to students who are hungry and will divert 3.8 tons of food waste from the landfill to be converted into compost that will help farmers grow more crops.

Jennifer Walker, in recognition of your hard work with the Rhode Island School Recycling Program in implementing a food waste diversion program at the Leviton Dual Language Elementary School, helping to divert 1.1 tons of healthy, edible food that would have gone into the trash and landfill and instead now goes to students who are hungry and will divert 3.8 tons of food waste from the landfill to be converted into compost that will help farmers grow more crops.

Mayra Garcia, in recognition of your hard work with the Rhode Island School Recycling Program in implementing a food waste diversion program at the Leviton Dual Language Elementary School, helping to divert 1.1 tons of healthy, edible food that would have gone into the trash and landfill and instead now goes to students who are hungry and will divert 3.8 tons of food waste from the landfill to be converted into compost that will help farmers grow more crops.

Lludmila Garcia, in recognition of your hard work with the Rhode Island School Recycling Program in implementing a food waste diversion program at the Leviton Dual Language Elementary School, helping to divert 1.1 tons of healthy, edible food that would have gone into the trash and landfill and instead now goes to students who are hungry and will divert 3.8 tons of food waste from the landfill to be converted into compost that will help farmers grow more crops.

Ana Ramos, in recognition of your hard work with the Rhode Island School Recycling Program in implementing a food waste diversion program at the Leviton Dual Language Elementary School, helping to divert 1.1 tons of healthy, edible food that would have gone into the trash and landfill and instead now goes to students who are hungry and will divert 3.8 tons of food waste from the landfill to be converted into compost that will help farmers grow more crops.

Pastor Emmanuel & Mrs. Esther Taiwo, in recognition of the celebration of your 52nd Wedding Anniversary.

Bukola Taiwo Daramola, in recognition of the celebration of your 50th Birthday.

Raphael Hodge, in recognition of completing the Providence Sports and Leadership Financial Literacy Workshop.

Derek De La Cruz, in recognition of completing the Providence Sports and Leadership Financial Literacy Workshop.

Erison Mieses, in recognition of completing the Providence Sports and Leadership Financial Literacy Workshop.

Arnold P. Pena, in recognition of completing the Providence Sports and Leadership Financial Literacy Workshop.

Samuel Belboder, in recognition of completing the Providence Sports and Leadership Financial Literacy Workshop.

Jefferson Mieses, in recognition of completing the Providence Sports and Leadership Financial Literacy Workshop.

Carlos Roquez, in recognition of completing the Providence Sports and Leadership Financial Literacy Workshop.

Edward McClung, in recognition of completing the Providence Sports and Leadership Financial Literacy Workshop.

Jerusalem Leon, in recognition of completing the Providence Sports and Leadership Financial Literacy Workshop.

Christopher Barboza, in recognition of completing the Providence Sports and Leadership Financial Literacy Workshop.

Adryan Urena, in recognition of completing the Providence Sports and Leadership Financial Literacy Workshop.

Anthony Campos, in recognition of completing the Providence Sports and Leadership Financial Literacy Workshop.

Marcelo Acosta, in recognition of completing the Providence Sports and Leadership Financial Literacy Workshop.

Bobby Brown, in recognition of your dedication to the arts and for your illustrious and successful career in the music industry, the City of Providence honors your incredible legacy.

Ralph Tresvant, in recognition of your dedication to the arts and for your illustrious and successful career in the music industry, the City of Providence honors your incredible legacy.

Ronnie DeVoe, in recognition of your dedication to the arts and for your illustrious and successful career in the music industry, the City of Providence honors your incredible legacy.

Johnny Gill, in recognition of your dedication to the arts and for your illustrious and successful career in the music industry, the City of Providence honors your incredible legacy.

Michael Bivens, in recognition of your dedication to the arts and for your illustrious and successful career in the music industry, the City of Providence honors your incredible legacy.

Ricky Bell, in recognition of your dedication to the arts and for your illustrious and successful career in the music industry, the City of Providence honors your incredible legacy.

Monsy Torres, in recognition of the celebration of your 52nd Birthday!

Magaly Montalvo, in recognition of your lifelong service to the community.

Vivian Medina, in recognition of your lifelong service to the community.

Naiviv Ortiz, in recognition of your lifelong service to the community.

Michael Morris, in recognition of your lifelong service to the community.

Lieutenant Governor Sabina Matos, in recognition of being recognized as a Community Catalyst at the 35th Anniversary One/NB Celebration.

Neil Steinberg, President and CEO, Rhode Island Foundation, in recognition of being recognized as a Community Catalyst at the 35th Anniversary One/NB Celebration.

Ana Novais, Acting Secretary, Executive Office of Health, and Human Services, in recognition of being recognized as a Community Catalyst at the 35th Anniversary One/NB Celebration.

The Hip Hop Chess Club of Rhode Island, in recognition of the celebration of your 6th Anniversary.

Julian R. Espinal, in recognition of being inducted into the 102nd Annual Cum Laude Society at the Classical High School Induction Ceremony! Your hard work and determination have brought you so far.

IN CITY COUNCIL
MAY 04 2023
READ AND PASSED

RACHEL M. MILLER, PRESIDENT

CLERK

I HEREBY APPROVE.

_____
Mayor
Date: 5/12/2023
_____