An Undying Record of Your Business

In a law suit involving many thousands of dollars the records of the Boston City Directories of 1870, 1871 and 1872 were accepted as reliable evidence. Such evidence is continually being quoted in important cases. How necessary that proper care should be used by responsible members of the firm that a record having such possibilities should be absolutely correct. It costs but a trifle to insert an advertisement giving all the details and on such a record may hinge in future the disposal of a fortune.
