RESOLUTION OF THE CITY COUNCIL

No. 237

Approved April 28, 1988

WHEREAS, Ben Lopes was born in Fox Point on October 31, 1927, and

WHEREAS, as a young man and throughout his adult life, Ben maintained an active interest in sports. At the Fox Point Boys Club, Ben learned a lot about sports and more about sportsmanship, he would later become a member of the Fox Point Boys Club Hall of Fame, and

WHEREAS, Ben later moved to the West Elmwood section of the City, but he brought with him one of the great traditions of the Fox Point Boys Club, that those who are helped as young people should, in their turn, help the next generation, and

WHEREAS, Ben in 1973 was one of the founders of the West Elmwood Intruders football program, which involves youths between the ages of 8 and 15 and includes three teams as well as cheerleaders, and

WHEREAS, Ben has served as President of the West Elmwood Intruders and the Club 650 for some fifteen years now, and devoted countless hours to the betterment of this program, and

WHEREAS, Ben Lopes is retiring as President of the Intruders program,

NOW, THEREFORE, BE IT RESOLVED that the members of the City Council join the many young people whom Ben has helped and guided over the years, thanking him for his dedicated and unselfish service to the community, and extend their best wishes for continued good fortune.

RESOLUTION OF THE CITY COUNCIL

No. 238

Approved April 28, 1988

WHEREAS, on April 10, 1988, Councilman and Mrs. Thomas F. O'Connor, Jr. became the proud parents of 7 pound 3 ounce Quinton Kolby O'Connor, and

WHEREAS, young Quinton becomes the latest addition to a family renown for its diversity of talent; his mother Donna is also a Registered Nurse, Real Estate Agent, and Pharmaceutical Equipment salesperson, while his father has distinguished himself as a City Councilman, School Committee Member, Labor Leader and Longshoreman, and

WHEREAS, Justin O'Connor now ceases to be the baby of the family and becomes a big brother, while Jolon O'Connor now has to watch out for two younger brothers, and

NOW, THEREFORE, BE IT RESOLVED, that the members of the City Council extend to Tom and Donna O'Connor their very best wishes on this happy occasion, and express hope that young Quinton will follow in the family tradition of dedicated public service. However, the proud parents are reminded that the Marines are only looking for a few good men, and that a little girl would be appropriate "next time around."
