

RESOLUTION OF THE CITY COUNCIL

No. 552

Approved November 10, 1988

WHEREAS, Joseph and Lillian Reinaldo were joined together in marriage on November 24, 1938, and

WHEREAS, On that day, not knowing what the future would hold for them, Joseph and Lillian made a promise to stay together for better or worse, for richer or poorer, in sickness and in health, and

WHEREAS, What was then an uncertain future is now a fondly remembered past; there have indeed been joys and sorrows, pleasures and pain, good times and bad in these fifty years. But it is appropriate that we use the word "Golden" to describe a promise that has been kept and lived for as long as that of Joseph and Lillian Reinaldo, and

WHEREAS, This union has produced three children, Judith DeFiderato, Barbara Della Morte, and Joseph Reinaldo, three grandchildren, Tammy, Vincent, and Joseph Jr., and three great-grandchildren, Christopher, Derek and Vincent, and

WHEREAS, The enduring love and commitment of Joseph and Lillian Reinaldo serves as an example to their family and friends, to all married couples, and indeed to all who contemplate marriage,

NOW, THEREFORE, BE IT RESOLVED, That the Members of the City Council do join with the family and many friends who honor Joseph and Lillian Reinaldo on the occasion of their Golden Wedding Anniversary, and express on behalf of all the people of Providence, best wishes for continued happiness, good health and good fortune.

RESOLUTION OF THE CITY COUNCIL

No. 553

Approved November 10, 1988

WHEREAS, On October 24, 1988 the City of Providence welcomed its newest citizen, eight pound, six ounce Kayla Nicole Pina, and

WHEREAS, Kayla is the daughter of Daniel and Lisa Pina, and the granddaughter of our esteemed colleague Councilman John Rollins and his lovely wife Julia, and

WHEREAS, Young Kayla will no doubt be a well-behaved child, because her rightfully proud grandfather has been showing her picture to everyone he knows, and since "Grandpa John" Rollins played football with half of the people in the State of Rhode Island and is related to the other half, she'll never be able to go anywhere where nobody knows her, and thus will at all times be on her best behavior,

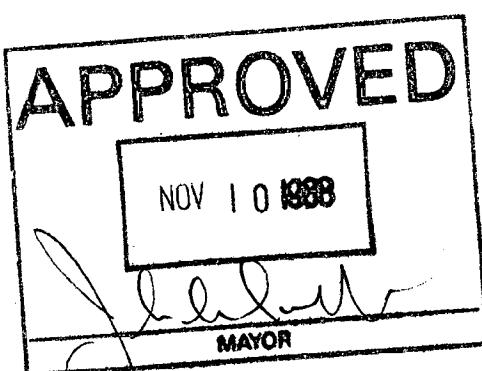

NOW, THEREFORE, BE IT RESOLVED, That the members of the City Council express congratulations to the proud parents, Lisa and Daniel Pina, on the birth of their daughter, as well as best wishes for continued good fortune..
