The Patent Bed gives four points of contact, and also allows the goods to press entirely up to the seams. The goods are pressed uniformly throughout their entire length and breadth, and any extra thickness of the cloth does not strain the machine in any way, as is the case where screws are used to give pressure

PROVIDENCE DIRECTORY 1907

The present number of the Providence Directory and Rhode Island Business Directory is printed entirely from new type, somewhat condensed, so the book is a little thinner than heretofore and more easily handled. It contains a full list of citizens, a complete Business Directory of the entire State, and the usual collection of societies, institutions, etc. carefully compiled to date. The publishers feel confident that it will give more than usual satisfaction to the numerous patrons, to whom hearty thanks are due for co-operation and assistance in furnishing information.
