RESUME

After a twelve year run as account executive at local radio and television outlets, Steve started E.F. Bishop Realty, Inc. with partner Ed Bishop in 1977. In 1984 he went out on his own with Daniels & Co. Real Estate, dealing mainly with East Side and Downtown properties until retirement in 2004. Daniels sold mostly investment and commercial properties.

Some notables included the former W.T. Grant building in Downtown which later became the home to Travelers Aid, and the first store in Providence for Stop & Shop on Manton Avenue. Daniels also brought Strawberries Records & Tapes to Rhode Island as well as J. Silver Co.

Daniels was appointed to the Capital Center Commission in 1984 and has served continuously since, having been reappointed by both Mayors Cianci and Paolino. Mr. Daniels is proud of the fact that he has never missed a meeting of the Commission since his original appointment. He currently is Vice Chairman.

Among other community endeavors Daniels has served on the following:

Member: Providence Zoning Code Study Commission

Member: Committee on Housing Policy (Reporting to the City Council)

Member: Board of Directors, Fox Point Housing Corporation

Chair: Providence Off Street Parking Authority

Appointed Rhode Island Commodore, 1990

Appointed Fellow, Brown University Institute of the Humanities

Chair: Troop 82 Troop Committee, BSA

Member : Parish Council, St. Joseph Church

Providence Democrat City Committee

Rhode Island Democrat State Committee

Daniels was born, raised and educated in Providence, living since 1987 at 20 Ruthven Street on the East Side. He is married to Irene (Tente) and has two children, Patrick S. and Amy B.D. Smith and three grandchildren.
