AN ORDINANCE

In Amendment of Section 17-95 of the Code of Ordinances Relative to Application to Persons on Military Training

Approved July 9, 2004

Be it ordained by the City of Providence:

SECTION 1. Section 17-95 of the Code of Ordinances is hereby amended as follows:

Sec. 17-95. Application to persons on military training.

Officers and permanent full-time employees who have been continuously employed for at least six (6) months and who by reason of membership in the active reserve forces of the United States or as members of the Rhode Island National Guard are ordered by the appropriate authority to full-time active duty and to attend full-time training activities shall be entitled to leaves of absence with pay during the actual duration of such activity but not to exceed fifteen (15) days in any one year. Notwithstanding, after the completion of the aforementioned fifteen (15) days of paid military duty leave, and for as long as the employee is required by the appropriate authority to remain on full-time military duty leave, the City shall pay to the employee on a weekly basis an amount equivalent to the actual difference between the employee's then-current regular City salary (including, if applicable, all longevity pay benefits; and including any applicable salary increases that may take effect during the employee's military duty leave) and the amount of pay received by the employee for his/her military service, if
