We Don't Expect

To do Printing for everyone; we wouldn't if we could and we couldn't if we would, but we do wish to impress upon you — who are now reading these words — that we are Printers, and have been for years. Perhaps you are satisfied with your own printer: if so, stick to him as long as he suits you; perhaps you are not satisfied: if so, we have put this "ad." here to tell you of a Printing House that will try to suit you, and give you what you want at a fair price. THIS company, established in 1849, by Geo. H. Corliss, builds these engines in different styles, i. e., condensing, non-condensing, single or in pairs, compound and triple expansion, in sizes from 30 to 3,000 horse power.

These works are fully equipped with heavy special tools of Mr. Corliss' invention, for the manufacture of these perfected engines. This guarantees a degree of precision in workmanship and consequent interchangeability of parts not hitherto attempted.

These Engines are in general and successful use for Manufacturing and Electric Lighting, and all other purposes requiring close regulation and economy in fuel.

The public will understand that we have no relations with American or European builders of so-called "Improved Corliss Engines," and that the final and perfected Engine of Mr. George H. Corliss, embodying his latest ideas, is to be obtained exclusively at our works.

JOHN D. BIRD, Supt.
W. F. BROWN, Chief Engineer.

THIS company, established in 1849, by Geo. H. Corliss, builds these engines in different styles, i. e., condensing, non-condensing, single or in pairs, compound and triple expansion, in sizes from 50 to 3,000 horse power.

These works are fully equipped with heavy special tools of Mr. Corliss' invention, for the manufacture of these perfected engines. This guarantees a degree of precision in workmanship and consequent interchangeability of parts not hitherto attempted.

These Engines are in general and successful use for Manufacturing and Electric Lighting, and all other purposes requiring close regulation and economy in fuel.

The public will understand that we have no relations with American or European builders of so-called "Improved Corliss Engines," and that the final and perfected Engine of Mr. George H. Corliss, embodying his latest ideas, is to be obtained exclusively at our works.

The Key to Success in Business.

By A. G. SCHOLFIELD,

Principal of Scholfield's Commercial College, Providence R. I.

COPYRIGHT 1890. BY A. G. SCHOLFIELD.

The Intellectual Advantage to the Student of the Study of Bookkeeping, as it is Taught in Scholfield's Commercial College.

THERE is no study that one can take up and pursue for the same limited time, that combines as much in variety, and that can so effectually discipline the mind in reasoning from cause to effect, and that can so intellectually and effectually equip him, or her, for the various duties of life, as the study of Double Entry Bookkeeping under a competent teacher. This study secures to the student an easy, graceful and legible handwriting. This study compels its students to acquire a thorough knowledge of Commercial Arithmetic as a preliminary qualification for the study of Bookkeeping. This study in its practical details, as pursued in this college, also requires its students to write all the letters of business correspondence suggested by the business which is the subject of the students' lessons. Each student is required to write all these letters and to submit them for criticism and when corrected to copy them into his Book of Forms for future reference. The laws of business to which every person's business is subject more or less, in its conduct and its records, are also here taught in all their practical details in connection with Bookkeeping.

This study embodies not only the foregoing preliminary considerations, but it calls into requisition certain fundamental governing principles, a thorough knowledge of which the student must acquire before he can commence or pursue understandingly the study of either single or double entry. Intellectually equipped with a thorough knowledge of these elementary governing principles, the student proceeds alone, aided by a competent teacher withal, to solve understandingly in the Day Book, Journal and Ledger and auxiliary books, the various actual business transactions which are the subjects of the students' lessons in both Single and Double entry. So definite, clear and available, to satisfy any inquiry which may arise in the business they represent are these business records, made under our supervision, that the student becomes at once fascinated in pursuing this very interesting and most important branch of education.

Finally, the time having come when the net gain or loss in the business of the past should be ascertained, that business the records of which are rendered in conformity with correct principles and their subordinate rules; the student proceeds to perform this task by making a Grand Balance Sheet, which sheet combines a Trial Balance, a Balance Sheet and a Profit and Loss Sheet, his Grand Balance Sheet made from the Ledger constitutes a mathematical process by which both gross aud net gain or loss in the business in the past is ascertained and proven beyond a doubt. The student having intelligently solved the profit and loss problem under consideration, proceeds to close the Profit and Loss account in the Ledger into the account or accounts to which it is subordinate. Having availed himself of the rare opportunity offered in Scholfield's Commercial College, for acquiring a thorough business education, and having under the guidance of the principal and his assistants opened a set of business books in double entry, penned their records daily, weekly and monthly, solved every problem demanded of the Accountant from day to day, and closed the business into Profit and Loss correctly and understandingly, the student realizes for the first time that he holds the intellectual key to the science of double entry bookkeeping—the key to success in business and to a competency through life. What enterprising young gentleman or lady does not covet such an accomplishment?

Shorthand and Type-Writing.

Among the improved facilities in the prosecution of business, which American invention has developed during the last decade, is the Amercan Type-Writer. During the year 1891, Fifty Thousand of these wonderful machines have been manufactured and sold in the United States. This large number of sales in a given time will doubtless increase annually, for years to come. Each of these machines will require an operator. At least ninety per cent. of these operators will be young ladies; hence, at least Forty-five Thousand young ladies per annum must qualify themselves to meet this demand in the United States for years to come.

In order to operate one of these machines practically and successfully, the operator must understand and practice in her work, shorthand writing. The necessary qualifications for the study of shorthand writing and its practical use in connection with type-writing are as follows: The student must understand Grammar, and must be a good speller. In order to utilize shorthand writing successfully in connection with type-writing, a knowledge of composition and punctuation is also required in the prosecution of this study. Besides the pecuniary advantage which must accrue to the practitioner in shorthand and type-writing, important intellectual advantages are gained by the operator, and a consideration and respect attained from the employer which none but a Shorthand and Type-writer, or Bookkeeper can command.

Furthermore, the expert Shorthand and Type-writer is not only always in the line of promotion, but her daily practice in the line of her profession opens to her wider fields of thought, the cultivation of which qualifies its subject for a large field of usefulness.

Such are the emoluments, intellectual tendencies, aspirations, and accomplishments of an accomplished and efficient Shorthand and Type-writer. Ladies, will you qualify yourselves for this honorable and remunerative occupation? The increased demand for Type-writers waits for your reply. Does the reader ask where can this instruction be acquired most effectually? We answer, it can be acquired most effectually in Scholfield's Commercial College, where Shorthand has been taught duri..g the last thirty-six years and Type-writing has been taught during the last four years. Our machines employed in teaching Type-writing are in variety, five of the best makes known to the profession.

The facilities for providing situations for its graduates is not excelled, if equaled, by any other school in New England.

The necessary qualifications for the study of shorthand writing and its practical use in connection with type-writing are as follows: The student must understand Grammar, and must be a good speller. In order to utilize shorthand writing successfully in connection with type-writing, a knowledge of composition and punctuation is also required in the prosecution of this study. Besides the pecuniary advantage which must accrue to the practitioner in shorthand and type-writing, important intellectual advantages are gained by the operator, and a consideration and respect attained from the employer which none but a Shorthand and Type-writer, or Bookkeeper can command.

Furthermore, the expert Shorthand and Type-writer is not only always in the line of promotion, but her daily practice in the line of her profession opens to her wider fields of thought, the cultivation of which qualifies its subject for a large field of usefulness.

Such are the emoluments, intellectual tendencies, aspirations, and accomplishments of an accomplished and efficient Shorthand and Type-writer. Ladies, will you qualify yourselves for this honorable and remunerative occupation? The increased demand for Type-writers waits for your reply. Does the reader ask where can this instruction be acquired most effectually? We answer, it can be acquired most effectually in Scholfield's Commercial College, where Shorthand has been taught during the last thirty-six years and Type-writing has been taught during the last four years. Our machines employed in teaching Type-writing are in variety, five of the best makes known to the profession.

The facilities for providing situations for its graduates is not excelled, if equaled, by any other school in New England.

THOMAS EVANS,

Consulting and Constructing Steam Engineer.

Examination and Testing Steam Plants to ascertain the efficiency of the same, also general examinations with a view of improving the plant and for the economy of fuel. Agent for the best slide valve engine in the market.

Thomas Evans' Patent Grate Bar.

The above cut represents the Thomas Evans Patent Grate Bar as set in two lengths under the ordinary tubular boiler or a square furnace, showing also the method of supporting the same. This bar has been in the market some eight years and given universal satisfaction, and has received many flattering testimonials. As seen in the cut, the bar rests on bearing bars supported by cast iron pockets built in the walls.

The bearing bars are a loose fit allowing for expansion and contraction, without bringing undue strain on the walls and increasing the wear and tear of the same.

These cast iron pockets are built flush with the wall, and are large enough to allow of removing the bearing bars when necessary for repairing the walls or boilers.

These rest bars have a knife edge allowing the ashes to drop freely from the bars.

This bar is adapted for any kind of fuel or furnace, from the ordinary horizontal tubular boiler to the most intricate fire box, including the vertical with brick furnaces or water leg.

The air space varies according to the fuel used from 45 to 65 per cent.

The iron used for these grates is of the best quality, no old iron being used.

Those in need of a durable grate at a reasonble price will find this bar all that can be desired. They are made in from one to three lengths according to the length of furnace.

The clearance of this bar is such that the fine ashes can be readily removed, enabling the fireman to have a clean fire with a minimum amount of labor. This is very desirable, especially during the summer months.

The free circulation of air through the bar prevents the forming of clinkers to a large extent; in fact, we have no hesitation in saying that the combustion of coal, where this bar is used with the proper air space, is as nearly perfect as can be, as the air flows through with the least possible resistance, diffusing itself through the whole furnace.

Steam Carpet Beating Company,

New Number 151 Summer Street.

Telephone No. 1539.

Economy! Neatness!! Dispatch!!!

Old Carpets made to look nearly as good as new by use of the Patent Carpet Beating Machine. Grease removed by a new process. Special rates for renovating. By this method of cleaning Carpets they are uniformly beaten their entire length and breadth, by revolving flexible whips, which will not injure the finest fabric, yet thoroughly expel all the dust and moths. The dust and dirt as fast as beaten out of the fabric, are removed from the compartment where the carpets are beaten, by an EXHAUST FAN, which also removes and carries out of the room any moths or lava which may be beaten out of the carpet with the dirt and dust, so that there is no possibility of their settling back on the carpet.

If it be found necessary we can apply our heated steam process in addition to the machine for removing dust and dirt; and this process will effectually relieve the carpet of all impurity, and in doing this bring the colors out almost like new. The moths and vermin are killed and not likely to trouble the fabric for a long time to come. Health and comfort are both promoted thereby. The carpets are not only beaten and cleaned but are thoroughly aired, there being a constant supply of fresh air going through the machine at all times.

Orders sent by Mail or Telephone to the Factory will receive prompt attention. Open every working day of the year. ☞ ALL WORK GUARANTEED.

CARPETS, RUGS, BLANKETS, ETC. WASHED.

Carpets called for, cleaned and returned without regard to weather. Cartage Free. Carpets taken up and relaid when desired. Send for Circulars.
