REAL ESTATE

EXPERIENCED to a marked degree in almost every branch of the real estate business through twenty-five years connection with the late Samuel A. Nightingale. Specializing, have had first hand and extensive experience in the development of the better grade of city land. Understand planning and executing construction work, particularly dwellings, and maintain as a branch of the business, gangs of masons, carpenters, painters, etc., under competent foremen, erecting first quality homes for direct profit, or indirect gain through enhanced value of neighboring property. Can be of much service in realty matters to those requiring advice founded upon actual results in the experience of others. Negotiate mortgages and write insurance.

MANIPULATOR of real estate, by sale, for cash, or by credit, financed to meet the buyer's and seller's requirments and, by pooling of property interests for the compensation of a share of profits, in this way obtaining better and quicker results than many corporations, banks and individuals otherwise can; and, by trading where cash sales are exceptionally difficult and exchange seems the quicker and surer route to the money or the interest upon it. If you will make known your real estate interests and wishes I will tell you frankly whether or not and how I can be of profit to you.
