RESOLUTION OF THE CITY COUNCIL

No. 179

Approved March 2, 1961

Whereas, the 35th Annual Appeal of the Catholic Charity Fund will take place from May 7th to May 17th, 1961 and

WHEREAS, this fund, the source of support for 25 agencies of mercy, catering to the needs of the orphan, the ailing, the elderly and the unfortunate-without reservation as to race, color or creed; has had the generous support of the people of Rhode Island, and rightly so, as each year tangible evidence in the form of improved or expanded facilities and extended social services are inaugurated, and

WHEREAS, this year's planned rehabilitation of facilities at St. Joseph's Hospital will provide an added incentive for giving<sup>by</sup> the thousands of Providence residents who have had occasion to benefit from its 70 years of nursing service.

NOW, THEREFORE, BE IT RESOLVED, that His Honor, Mayor Walter H. Reynolds and the members of the City Council heartily endorse the aims and purposes of the 1961 Catholic Charity Fund Appeal and extend to its sponsor, Most Reverend Bishop, Russell J. McVinney, D.D. and through him to a co-operative clergy, to the self-sacrificing members of religious orders who staff the various homes and hospitals and to the thousands of voluntary solicitors; grateful appreciation for the many years of charitable community service and the fond hope that the 1961 Appeal will be crowned with success, and

BE IT FURTHER RESOLVED, that duly certified copies of this resolution be forwarded to Most Reverend Russell J. McVinney, D.D., Roman Catholic Bishop of Providence and to Mr. Joseph Abood, lay chairman.

No. 473

Approved March 2, 1961

Whereas, James J. Corrigan, Esq. was called to his eternal reward on February 21, 1961, and

WHEREAS, Mr. Corrigan, a member of the City Solicitor's Staff since 1943, rendered inestimable service to the people of Providence by his innumerable appearances before the higher courts of the State, where his talents and wisdom were gainfully employed to safeguard the city's interests, and

WHEREAS, his meticulous preparation and skillful handling of the litigation involving the disposition of the Dexter Asylum bore fruit in 1957, after years of effort, when a Superior Court decree permitted the city to convey the property to Brown University for a very substantial consideration.

NOW, THEREFORE BE IT RESOLVED, that His Honor, Mayor Walter H. Reynolds, and the members of this City Council, fully aware of the great loss the city has suffered and saddened by the death of Mr. Corrigan, hereby pay honor and respect to his memory and extend to Mrs. Corrigan and her daughter sincere sympathy in the hour of their bereavement.
